The students over at St. Margaret Mary's School made Christmas a sharing time. Through a used toy sale they raised $196.76 for the Eddie Meath Christmas fund. Meath, himself, visited the school on Dec. 20 to personally thank the teachers, children and parents.

Students also showed their spirit when they came together to help the people in Cambodia. Through a special

Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus doll project, they raised $49 for the cause in Cambodia.
