DeSales Optimistic About the 1980 Season

By Tom Rickey

The DeSales High School baseball team hopes to improve somewhat on its 0-12 record of last year as play begins in the 1980 season.

The Saints feature five returning lettermen who figure to play a large part in the success of the team. They are senior Bill Maher, pitcher-centerfield; senior Bob Taney, first baseman; senior Bob Laws, second baseman; junior Paul Quartaro, pitcher-first baseman; and junior Mike Combs, catcher.

Other players with experience include seniors Frank Sroka, pitcher-outfielder; Bob Bucklin, third baseman; Bill Kane, outfielder; and junior Kevin Taney, catcher-infielder.

Coach Dave Pratt is optimistic about his ball club. "I will say the talent is there," Pratt said, "and if the kids play up to their potential, we're capable of having a winning season."

A large part of the Saints' hopes is invested in the hitting of the Taney cousins and Bucklin, and the pitching of Maher, Sroka and Quartaro.

"Our season depends on our pitching staff," Pratt said. "Maher will have to have a good year and we'll need more offense if we're going to win games."

Learning First Aid

Junior Betsy Tutty, one of 30 Nazareth students who participated in an all-day Red Cross first aid course, receives her certificate from Craig Bauer, Red Cross representative. During the day's session the girls learned many emergency rescue techniques — the control of bleeding, splinting and bandaging. Sisters Donna Marie Cucci and Marilyn Pray are moderators of the school's Red Cross Club.
