The Spirit Of Giving

There was something special about the Cardinal Mooney Carnival this year. The school grounds were closed to the public Saturday, May 17, when 150 special children were invited to the school's "Handicapped Children's Morning." Faculty and students spent two hours taking their visitors on rides, introducing them to the festival attractions, and seeing that they all had a good time. In top photo, Greg Burgmaster, left, and students Jeff Swiatk and Jon Zorsch enjoy a merry-go-round ride. At right, student Dan DeMarlo shows Donald Holland some crash maneuvers.

Speaking Out

By MaryBeth Stone Nazareth

The end of the school year is upon us once again. High school seniors across the country will soon be entering a world of political turmoil and unrest.

Because we are seniors most of us have, or will very soon, become adults in the eyes of the law. As adults, we have the responsibility to support the ideals of our government. Our government has granted us the rights to speak what we choose and write what we wish. Thus, it is our responsibility to utilize these freedoms to improve the present system.

1980 is another election

year. We will vote for a man to run our country for the next four years, as president of the U.S. Because many of us will be "of age" when the polls open in November, we will have the opportunity the obligation to vote for the first time in a national election. We must consider our choices of presidential candidates and make a careful decision. We must recognize the importance of each individual vote and thus fulfill our duty to select the best candidate.

Too many people today claim that their individual ballot has no impact on the outcome of the election. We must be careful not to climb onto this bandwagon and use that thought as a feeble excuse to stay away from the polls.

ELIZABETH HINKLEMAN

Poetry Accepted

Nazareth Academy student Elizabeth Hinkelman has been notified that one of her poems has been accepted for publication in the anthology of high school poetry, "Young America Sings," published by the National Poetry Press. This is the second year that her poetry has been accepted for the publication.

A National Merit Scholarship winner, Elizabeth's literary interests are varied. She is a member of Nazareth's writing club and has contributed to the school newspaper, "The Gabriel," and "Spectrum," the school's literary magazine.

Freshmen Activity

Nazareth Academy's freshman class has been busy planning and carrying out a variety of activities during the final months of the school year. Class officers have been responsible for coordinating these events.

Roni Ross, class president, chaired the roller skating party open to the whole school. Emifa Wood, class treasurer, coordinated Freshman Appreciation Day.

On that day the freshmen had a "dress up day," enjoyed breakfast in school, and had free ice cream with lunch.

Lisa Farrell, class secretary, is in charge of the election preparation and candidates' publicity campaigns for the elections of soph officers. At the end of the school year, the freshmen will enjoy a class picnic at Sea Breeze that is being planned by Emily Zicari, vice president.

A Place for Youth

Why don't teenagers have more part in the Church? How can they become more involved? These are questions being asked by young Catholic adults and recently over at St. Agnes, these questions and many others were the concern of a seminar involving parish priests and youth representatives. Among the clergy present were Fathers Thomas Mull, St. Ambrose; Kevin Murphy, St. Louis; Raymond Booth, St. Christopher's; Robert Schrader, St. Monica's. Participating students included Shari Stappenbeck, Chantal Rizzo, Sue Ralston and Angel Schneider.
