TV Mass

Eight clients of the Monroe Community Hospital recently visited WHEC-TV Channel 10's studios on East Avenue to participate in the taping of the Mass For Shut-ins that aired last Sunday, June 1. Above, Father Bruce Ammering, far right, chaplain of Monroe Community Hospital, opens the Mass with the blessing as Deacon George Heyman stands at his side. The clients participated as the choir for the service and also joined in the scripture readings.

THOUGHTS TO CONSIDER

EDWIN SULEWSKI FUNERAL DIRECTOR

"Pre-arrangement"

"Pre-arrange my own funeral — or that of a loved one? I don't know. I've really never thought about it. Anyhow, that's not something I have to do now!"

Death is certainly something none of us want to think about. However, more and more today, we are learning to accept the inevitable — and even prepare for it.

We don't find it objectionable to sit down and draw up a will — in the event of our death — and all of us plan for our death through insurance programs. We do these things to take care of those we will leave behind, to try to take some of the burden from them.

Why then, is it so difficult for us to make these final arrangements — to take care of the details and decisions that will face our loved ones at the most trying time of their lives?

Pre-arranging a funeral can be as simple as visiting our funeral home and discussing with us what you would prefer in a funeral service. Pre-arrangement will provide your family — and us — with your exact wishes, and can also include pre-financing, paying on the projected cost of the funeral you arrange.

Call on our staff to explain pre-arrangement, at your convenience. Use our lending library, audio visual aids, and audio cassettes on dying, death, bereavement, and related subjects. We are available for group discussions.
