Big Change 15

Policy changes for the 1980s were announced last week at DeSales High School in Geneva. The changes include a restructuring of the school's administration. The board of trustees announced that a team structure will be used as opposed to the traditional principal and vice principal administration. Ed Tracey and Sister Mary Maywalt will become chief administrator and assistant administrator respectively. The board also announced the retirement of Sister Bernadine Freida who has been at the school for 15 years. She has been named to head the Dansville Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Celebrating! 8

May was a special month for the residents of St. Ann's Home/The Heritage. In addition to official and unofficial proclamations honoring senior citizens, the residents themselves observed the month traditionally honoring them with a host of activities ranging from concerts through dinners to lessons in disco dancing.

Ironic Twist 17

During the same week that Bishop Matthew H. Clark set his seal of approval on the boycott of the J.P. Stevens and Co. Inc. products, the textile manufacturer announced "unaudited" results of operations reveal net income up from the same period last year.

Klan Topic 16

Some 270 persons took part in the conference on the Ku Klux Klan sponsored by the diocesan Office of Black Ministries last Friday at Immaculate Conception school hall in downtown Rochester. They heard Patsy Sims, journalist and author of "The Klan," warn that the membership of the KKK seems to be growing, but even more alarming is that the number of Klan sympathizers may be as many as 100,000.

Visitors 13

The Courier-Journal RapAround office was recently visited by guests from our northern neighbor, Quebec. Sister Jeannine Plamondon, SCQ, professor at Cap Rouge University, had escorted Marlene Larue to this city where she will be pursuing English courses at Bishop Kearney High School. They were officially welcomed to Rochester by Mayor Thomas Ryan. Sister Jeannine is no stranger to this city since twelve years ago when she and Father William Marceau, St. John Fisher, initiated an exchange visitors program between students studying English and French. News of how this program has expanded from the university to the high school level is in this week's RapAround.

Portrait 7

Notre Dame Retreat House, the Canandaigua center of prayer and reflection open to all Christians, is featured in a photo-essay this week. The retreat house, which averages more than 7,000 retreatants a year, is already nearly completely booked for weekends in 1980.

Tour Funds 21

Genesee Ecumenical Ministries is trying this month to raise funds to send ten area clergymen and leaders in education, including John Walker, head of the diocesan Office of Black ministries, on a fact-finding tour of South Africa. The GEM action is in response to an invitation from South Africa's Episcopal Bishop Desmond Tutu.

Christiane Brusselmans will present two workshops in the diocese, Sunday and Monday, Oct. 5 and 6.

The workshops will be sponsored jointly by the Hogan Center for Continuing Education of St. Bernard's Seminary, the Office of Religion Education and the Office of Liturgy.

Their children range in age from 10 to 18; their grandchildren are infants-in-arms; and they all live under the same roof.

On pilgrimage with the Terrances will be Bishop Matthew H. Clark. The group will depart June 19 and return June 26. Cardinal Terence Cooke of New York, Cardinal John Krol of Philadelphia and
