St. Ann's/Heritage Make May Memorable

The residents of St. Ann's Home/The Heritage celebrated Older American's Month with a host of activities during May.

The facility itself designated the month as Residents' Recognition Month, and featured the signing of proclamations to that effect by Rochester vice mayor John G. Curran and Irondequoit supervisor Stephen R. Johnson.

That event was followed by a special cocktail dinner with orchestra. During the festivities, Sister Marie Michelle Peartree, administrator, presented certificates of recognition to residents.

Other special events which occurred included a variety show staged by Cub Scouts, international folk dancing by the Brighton International Folk Dancers, classical music by the Senior Citizens' Chamber Orchestra, big band music and a lesson in disco dancing, special events hosted by students from Aquinas Institute and the Italian Women's Civic Club, a May Walk, a treat from Mc Donald's, a slide show-lecture on the Shroud of Turin by Father Vincent J. Donovan, pastor of St. John the Evangelist Church in Oswego; and a putting tournament.

In addition, the residents also staged a show, and, finally, the Bishop Kearney Marching Band paraded to St. Ann's and performed their precision program on the grounds.

Residents Josephine Westman, Betty Incavo, Anna Manogg, Frank Mance, Carmen Lucia and Muriel Heislein learn to dance disco-style.
