St. Margaret Mary

Students at St. Margaret Mary's School, Irondequoit, raised $1,400 for the American Heart Association recently, by skipping rope.

The students took part in the Heart Association's "Jump Rope-A-Thon," where students jump rope in relay teams of six for a three-hour period. Pledges were given by parishioners for every minute the youngsters jumped.

St. Boniface

St. Boniface School will begin a pre-school program this fall for children three to four years old. The program provides "learning experiences, readiness skills, group participation and the development of individual creativity," according to a release. Registrations are now being accepted. For further information those interested may call 271-6370.

follow that will feature music, a carnival type midway, and refreshments.

On Saturday, July 26, a parish "block dance" will take place from 8-12 p.m. Admission will be $2 per person.

Registrations are currently being accepted at St. Anthony of Padua's School. The school, K-8, features "a small class size, dedicated and qualified teaching staff, and a teaching philosophy which centers on the whole child," according to a release from St. Anthony's.

Anyone interested in registering or for more information may call on Mondays during the summer, 458-6110.
