

McQuaid Around McQuaid

Joan M. Smith, Editor

McQuaid Kicks-off Sport Season

Step Aside

When the big guys move in, it's time to move back.

Photos by Terrance J. Brennan

Hit it Again

The old drum has taken quite a beating through the years. The seniors didn't give it any rest Friday, either.

Four!

Seniors Ron Ortboch, left, and caddy Chris Gawlik are just playing through.

Let's Hear It

A new group of cheerleaders don their sweaters.

Attention Getter

Football coach Tom "Bum Phillips" Seymour introduces the 1980 Knights' starting lineup.

No Lack of Energy

Seniors "pile-on" the enthusiasm at the start of McQuaid's sports assembly, Friday, Sept. 12.

For Gr Op

Naz teacher tanned, with enthusiasm beginning the experience for faculty. 2. We were there "May" deep in marvel

Sister principal with a talk for excellent needs each courage excellence a vacuum in a possible. She expects to make a commu to see search method where sacrifice possible

Each receives reminder of growth then ce chapel.

The class of freshmen "We're We hope growth. As each entered found sister. I period, in the a building

Wa

It's the drama of actors v mystery.

Try-o Agnes a 21-22 at contact!

A M Wel

Our welcome the school cording was the 1 since 19 brought the school home reorgan: increase.

Sister ministry leaders opening "Togeth and Lov need an unity a relations