

New Officers

2 Lectures Scheduled

Two internationally recognized scholars will present public lectures this fall at Colgate Rochester-Bexley Hall-Crozier Divinity School.

Paul Louis Lehmann, a distinguished Christian theologian and ethicist, will present the school's 1980 Ayer Lecture Thursday, Sept. 18.

On Thursday, Oct. 16, Marianne H. Micks, biblical scholar and theologian, will present the fall semester Rossiter Lecture, "Sarah Laughs Again; Hope for 1985."

Both lectures will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Divinity School auditorium, 1100 S. Goodman St. and are open to the public free.

St. Agnes Parents Busy

A pot luck dinner for parents, faculty and freshmen on Sept. 24 will open the 1980-81 slate of events planned by the St. Agnes High School Parents Club. At the dinner, president John Arthur will introduce parents to faculty members and present the program of events.

Parents of freshmen will have a walk-through of their student's sample day. At this time, Kay and Roger Geedy will be presenting a travelogue for parents of upper-classmen concerning a projected trip to Europe in the spring.

Another current activity of the Parents Club is the sale of Dinner & Theater Books. The coupon books present entertainment, restaurant and cultural events at reduced prices. Parents and friends may call the school to purchase the books.

Also scheduled during the fall is a Communion Breakfast on Oct. 19 and a fun night on Nov. 7. Mrs. Marjorie Owens is chairperson for the breakfast; John and Rose Nasca are general chairpersons for the fun night.

Marlene and Bob Frank are making plans for 600 Club functions. Future events include a St. Patrick's dance on March 14 and a 600 Club dance May 2.

New officers are John and Jeanne Arthur, presidents; Louis and Rose Audino, vice presidents; John and Florence Zamites, secretaries; Ed and Marita Fredette; treasurers; Jim and Pat Crowley, publicity. Kenneth and Joan Rowland will supervise a telephone committee and Karen Fredette is alumnae liaison.

Open House

The Cenacle Sisters will be celebrating the feast of their foundress, St. Therese Couderc, during an open house from 2:30 to 5 p.m., Sunday, Oct. 5, at the Cenacle Center, 693 East Ave.

Conservation Program

Energy education and conservation projects will be featured by the Otetiana Council of the Boy Scouts, as they observe Scouting Energy Day on Saturday, Oct. 4.

Cub Scout packs, Boy Scout troops and Explorer posts throughout the council will be "participating in projects specifically designed to reduce waste in the consumption of home energy and to help educate their friends and neighbors about the urgent need for energy conservation," a release said.
