

Nazareth Academy Alumnae Association officers have been busy coordinating the Nov. 9 tea. They are: Mary Borrelli, secretary; Myra Wahl Zink, president; Bonnie Bauerschmidt, treasurer; and Sister Eileen Broad, moderator.

Nazareth Alumnae Looking for Grads

The Nazareth Academy Alumnae Association is busy planning ways to celebrate the 110th year of the school. The first event, according to a news release, will be the first Nazareth Academy Alumnae Homecoming Tea at the school on Lake Ave., Nov. 9 at 2 p.m. All Nazareth alumnae are cordially invited to attend.

The school has a listing of its 14,000 graduates and sends out Alumnae Newsletters each year to each alumna's last known address. Because so many graduates have changes of names and addresses, the Alumnae Association needs the help of its members to update addresses. Any alumna who is not receiving newsletters from the Association should call the school, 458-8583, and leave her maiden and married names, class year, and phone number.

Meanwhile, all Nazareth alumnae are asked to mark their calendars for Nov. 9 to come for tea, a tour of the school, and a reunion with friends.

At Your Parish...

Getting Ready

Father Thomas Wheeland and Sister Sheila Luber, associate pastor and school principal at Sacred Heart Cathedral, are preparing to participate in the Marathon for Catholic Education on Saturday, Oct. 25. The marathon is geared to raise funds for Catholic schools and to remind the public of the contribution made by Catholic schools.

Mother of Sorrows

Father David Mura, director of Teen Seminar, will give a presentation on parents and teenagers on Thursday, Oct. 16 at 7:30 p.m. at Our Mother of Sorrows parish, 5000 Mt. Read Blvd.

Father Mura's talk will touch on "moral issues and family values," regarding teens and their parents, according to a release. The program, free and open to the public, is sponsored by the Mother of Sorrows Adult Education Committee.

Our Mother of Sorrows

Sister Mary Lynch, SSJ, consultant for diocesan religious programs, will speak on "Moral Decision Making" at Our Mother of Sorrows parish, on Thursday, Oct. 23 beginning at 7:30 p.m. in the church hall. The Adult Education Committee at Mother of Sorrows is sponsoring the event.

Holy Cross

Students from Holy Cross School are taking part in a reading program designed to "help students develop lasting reading comprehension skills by requiring them to think reflectively and to make inferences about what they read," according to the school.

St. Philip Neri

A Masquerade Dance, sponsored by the Women's Club at St. Philip Neri parish, is scheduled for Oct. 25, in the school hall, 1772 Clifford Ave.

The dance will begin at 8:30 p.m. Donation is $3.50 per person and costumes are a must.

In other St. Philip Neri news, the next meeting of the Women's Club is set for Tuesday, Oct. 28 starting at 8 p.m. New members are welcome.

Junior Great Books, a program begun in Chicago, provides for students to read and discuss reading assignments with adult volunteers for one hour every week.
