

This year, the funds raised by Seton events are going toward the renovation of the Ambulatory Medical/Surgical Center. Shown here in the center are, from left, Sister Ann William, president of St. Mary's Hospital; patient Sister Elizabeth Ann Beauchamp, SSJ; Dr. Nagendra Nadaraja, surgeon at St. Mary's; and Betty Barnett, R.N.

For 1980-81 Season

Other Seton events include the annual fashion show and luncheon, a day to enjoy the new spring clothes scheduled in late March. Mary Ellen Stampfli is chairman of this annual day off for Seton members and their guests.

June is the time for the annual Seton tour of homes, offering the interested a leisurely look at some of the area's most interesting houses. In 1980, tour chairman Kathy Gullo arranged a tour of Pittsford and Mendon homes.

Next September, Seton plans an encore performance of its successful used clothing sale. This is an opportunity to find great bargains as well as to clean out a few closets.

Seton branches also provide funds for three scholarships given annually to students in health-related careers. Recipients this year are Robert Amberger, Barbara Conley and Mary Anne Sailer. Amberger is a former employee of St. Mary's and is a student at SUNY Buffalo. Conley is a nursing student at Monroe Community College and Sailer is in a bachelor's degree program at St. John Fisher College. Both are employees of St. Mary's Hospital.

In addition to these major events, some Seton branches also hold their own fund-raisers. These vary from golf tournaments to cocktail parties; roller skating to art shows; bake sales to bus trips.

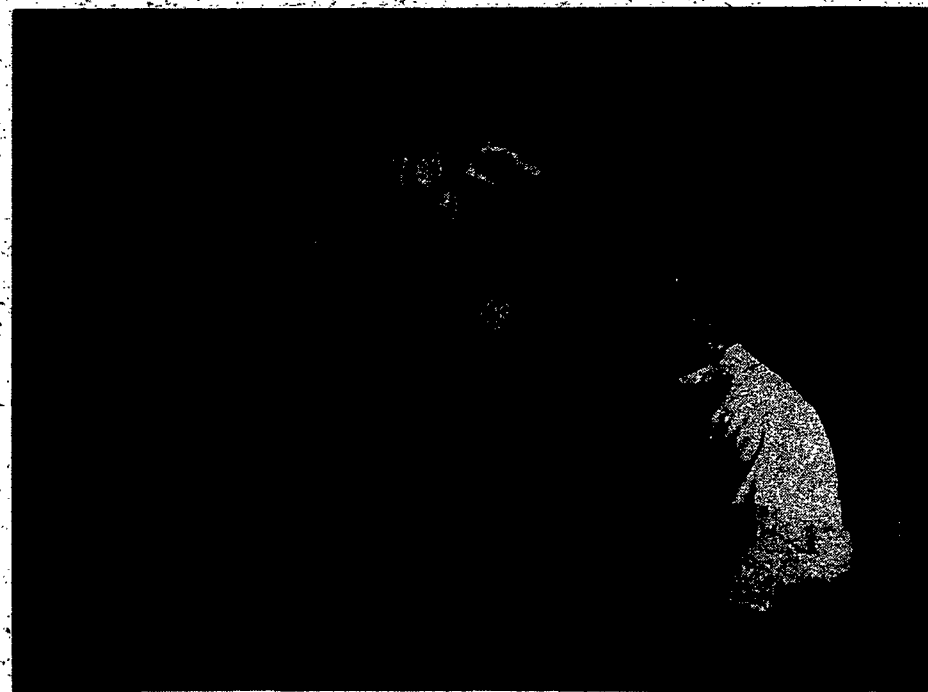

St. Mary's Hospital is fortunate to reap the benefits of Seton's creative members and is interested in helping to form new Seton branches. All that is necessary are eight prospective members and the desire to help St. Mary's, Rochester's first and only Catholic hospital. More information can be obtained by calling the director of Seton volunteers, Annabelle Pugliese, at 328-3300.

Standing near the Ambulatory Medical/Surgical Center at St. Mary's are, from left, Ann Bush, Cay Salamone, Ellen Wrona and Lucille Loder.

Members of the committee planning the Seton Ball are, from left, Mary Jean Herberger, chairman Cay Salamone, Janet Gaffney (standing) and Peg Byrne.

Planning for the upcoming year and reviewing last year's Seton tour of homes are chairmen Kathy Gullo and Janet Gaffney.