

Sibley's Gala Scheduled For Nov. 2

The annual Sibley's Gala, this year co-sponsored by the Women's Committee of the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra, will take place Sunday, Nov. 2 for the benefit of the orchestra.

"Celebrate America" will be the theme of the program from 5 to 7 p.m. in the remodeled Sibley's downtown store. Wine, cheese and other snacks will be served along with live music and an opportunity to view new Fall merchandise.

Under the chairmanship of Joan Hallenbeck, and Joan Ryan, the Women's Committee has been working since May on the extravaganza.

Tax-deductible tickets are available at $5 per person, $35 for patrons (including two tickets for the gala). Sibley's will provide free parking at the store's ramp garage and tickets will be available at the door. Further information is available from the RPO office at 454-2620.

Hootenanny To Benefit Aquinas Band

Friends of Aquinas Institute are invited to the "Halloween Hootenanny," a costume dance from 8:30 p.m. to 1 a.m., Saturday Oct. 25, in the school cafeteria.

Music will be provided by the Al Sain Trio and donation is $6 a person, including refreshments plus a midnight buffet.

Costumes are optional. The Hootenanny is sponsored by the Aquinas Band Boosters Club and reservations are available from Mrs. Bruce Zaepfel, 889-1062, or Edward Lynd, 482-4223.

Seminary Gets New Addition

Ceremonies marking the dedication and blessing of the new library facilities at Wadhams Hall Seminary College in Ogdensburg will take place at 3:30 p.m., Monday, Oct. 13.

The new addition, costing more than $300,000, will be dedicated by Bishop Stanislaus J. Brzana of Ogdensburg. An open house on Sunday, Oct. 12, between 2 and 4 p.m. will give the public as well as friends and donors the opportunity to view the addition.

New Officers

The Alumni Association at St. Bernard's Seminary elected new officers during the recent biennial reunion. They are Msgr. Floyd J. Brown, president; Robert J. Hilliard, vice president; Father Richard E. Dellos, secretary; Father William M. Barrett, treasurer; Father Robert F. McNamara, historian.

Some 250 alumni attended the two-day event at the Seminary. Dean of the alumni gathering was Msgr. Francis Burns who lives at the seminary and is still active.
