

At Your Parish . . .

St. Bernard, Scipio Center

A parish mission took place recently at St. Bernard's parish, Scipio Center. The week-long event, titled A Week of Family Renewal, was conducted by Father Bernadine Grande, of the Passionist Order.

Father Robert Egan, pastor, termed the event a "very successful renewal and well attended." Parishioners from St. Bernard's, St. Isaac Jogues, Fleming, and St. Hillary, Genoa participated.

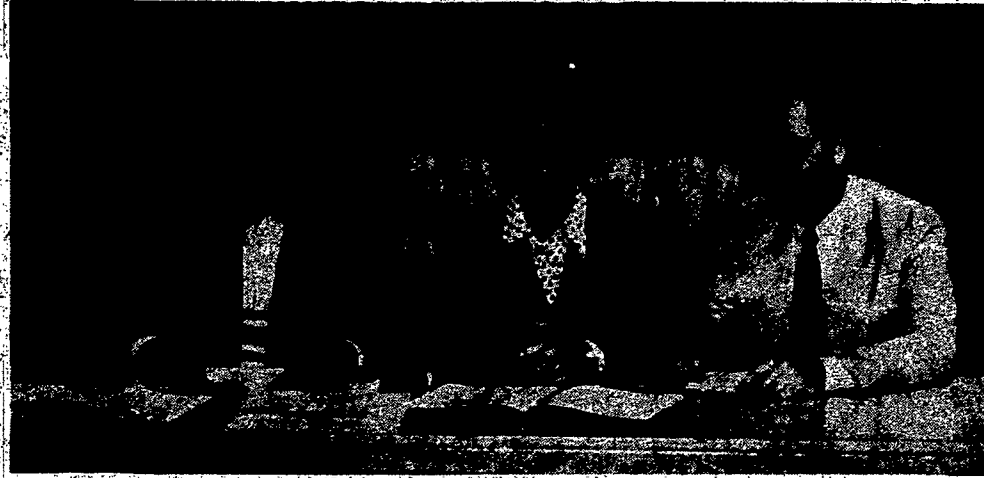

In other news from St. Bernard's, the Rosary Society sponsored a bus trip to Auriesville, site of the American Martyrs Shrine and headquarters for the Tekakwitha League, on Sunday, Oct. 5. More than 40 parishioners made the pilgrimage.

St. Vincent, Churchville

The second annual Visitor's Sunday at St. Vincent De Paul parish, Churchville, will take place on Sunday, Nov. 2 during the 10 and 11:30 a.m. Masses. All parishioners at St. Vincent's are asked to bring a guest to one of the liturgies and stay afterwards for refreshments, according to the parish bulletin.

Holy Family

The Mother's Circle at Holy Family parish is planning a Harvest Moon Party on Thursday, Oct. 30 in the parish auditorium. The party, held from 6:30-8 p.m., features arts, crafts, games and refreshments for the children aged 3-10 years. Reservations may be made by contacting Carol Reeners, 436-2527. All children must be accompanied by an adult.

They Also Serve

Youngsters aren't the only ones to have a hand in Saturday's Marathon for Catholic Schools. Above, John Nolan, grand knight of Knights of Columbus Council 178, a co-sponsor of the event; Gina Ouwelen, president of the Rochester Federation of Catholic School Parents; and Robert Nolan, a public relations consultant for the event. At right, coordinating St. Thomas More School's participation are Steven Dawe and Sister Judith Whalen, school principal.

St. John, Humboldt St.

St. John the Evangelist parish, Humboldt Street, will host a Garage Sale on Saturday, Oct. 25, from 9 a.m. to 6:30 p.m., and Sunday, Oct. 26 from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the church hall. The sale will benefit Religious Education Programs.

St. John's is also sponsoring a new religious ed program for teens titled "Close Encounters." The program is designed to include study time, discussion, prayer and/or Eucharist together and socializing, according to a parish release. The first gathering is slated for Nov. 2.

St. Andrew's

St. Andrew's parish has joined the ever increasing members of the New York State Catholic Marathon, designed to raise funds for Catholic Schools and remind the public of the contributions made by Catholic schools. A source from St. Andrew's revealed recently that school principal Sister Therese Richardson has been secretly jogging up and down the school halls in preparation for the event.

St. Francis of Assisi

St. Francis of Assisi volunteers are looking for donations for their second annual Garage Sale set for Oct. 25 from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. and Oct. 26 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Those wishing to donate reusable sale items are asked to drop them off at the rectory.

St. Agnes, Avon

St. Agnes, Avon, will conduct a parish census on Sunday, Oct. 26 to "determine the needs of all the parishioners within our territory — those retired, the elderly, shut-ins, as well as newcomers to the community," according to a parish release.

St. Lawrence, Greece

The adult education department at St. Lawrence parish, Greece, will sponsor a talk on Contemporary Family Problems, given by Ron and Judy Platten, on Tuesday, Oct. 28 starting at 7:30 p.m. in the school library.

St. Jude, Gates

A solemn nine-day Novena in honor of St. Jude the Apostle is now under way and will continue to Tuesday, Oct. 28. Mass will begin each evening at 7:30 p.m. at the church, located at 4100 Lyell Rd., Gates. Father Matthew Reilly, OP, will conduct the Novena.

Nancy Fine and Ann Kirchoff selected wine for the international dinner.

St. Louis, Pittsford

A dinner with an international flair will take place at St. Louis parish, Pittsford. The dinner, sponsored by the St. Louis Rosary Guild, features dinners from 12 different countries: Greece, Poland, Mexico, Russia, Italy, the Ukraine, America, Ireland, Germany, France, Switzerland and Chile. For reservations and more information, those interested may call Gertrude Rombaut, 586-8819.

St. Thomas Apostle Lists Celebrations

"Tradition" is the theme for Catholic Schools' Week 1981, and the families and school of St. Thomas the Apostle are joining in a salute to all Catholic education programs.

will be Open House at 7:30. There will also be a Children's Book Fair in the school hall.

On Saturday, Oct. 25, students, parents, and teachers are participating in the marathon for Catholic schools.

Wednesday, Oct. 29 has been set aside for grandparents of children in grades one through three who are invited to visit the school. The upperclasses will be busy competing in Scholastic Bowl. A school Mass will be celebrated Oct. 31 with an award assembly following. It has been announced that Patty Lancer will represent St. Thomas the Apostle at the Bishop Matthew H. Clark Oratorical, Sat., Nov. 1.

There will be a family Mass on Sunday, Oct. 26, 9:30 a.m. A thanksgiving prayer service will be held Monday, Oct. 27 by students and faculty and each homeroom will compete in a song fest that afternoon. Tuesday, Oct. 28, is Olympic Day and the students will be competing in various athletic activities. In the evening there
