

Queen Visits Pope

Pope John Paul II shows the way to Queen Elizabeth II as he received her and her husband, Prince Philip, partially visible behind the pope, in the papal library at the Apostolic Palace on Oct. 17. They joined in expressions of support for Christian unity and the queen said she welcomed the visit the pope will make to Great Britain in 1982. (RNS).

Curran Defends Cdl. Medeiros, Falwell Tactics

Baltimore (RNS) — A Catholic University theologian with a reputation as a liberal defended the aggressive political involvement of controversial Christian conservatives as consistent with religious freedom and the separation of Church and state.

Father Charles E. Curran, speaking at an ecumenical forum in suburban Towson, said both Moral Majority and Cardinal Humberto Medeiros of Boston "are coming out of the same basic position."

Father Curran said it would be hypocritical to attack that position — the application of a deeply felt biblical faith to social issues of the day — and not also attack a San Diego bishop who preached against the Ku Klux Klan.

The theologian personally opposes the positions taken by both the Rev. Jerry Falwell's conservative Moral Majority and Cardinal Medeiros who unsuccessfully attempted to influence the election of anti-abortion candidates from the pulpit in the recent Boston primary.

Nevertheless, Father Curran argued, in attempting to put their religious principles into practice, both are within the mainstream of an honored Christian tradition.

"Oh God, what a protagonist you have in this man!"

The words of one of his many converts spoke for all of them. And for the rest of us as well—who knew him as the dynamic head of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith... as the brilliant author of more than 60 books... as the first churchman to have a regular television program, a personality who electrified and inspired viewers of all faiths. Virtually completed shortly before his death, this autobiography is a full, personal portrait of an extraordinary life—by one of the most extraordinary priests of this century. It is the book for all those who loved Fulton J. Sheen. With photographs, $15.95.
