DeSales High Begins McCafferty, Memorial

Geneva DeSales High School is beginning a Memorial Fund in honor of Bishop John E. McCafferty, the proceeds of which will be used to build a grotto to the Blessed Virgin Mary on school grounds. The bishop was a 1937 graduate of DeSales and fellow classmates Henry Sabine and Dorothy Ryan will co-chair the drive.

Frank Delamere, director of the DeSales promotion and development committee, said that he learned from Joan McCafferty, the bishop's sister, that as a youngster in New York City the bishop had two career desires: to be a street car conductor, or a priest. It was through the the bishop's love of riding the
