

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.: 1929-1968

Late Civil Rights Leader Honored on Birthday

Some 400 Rochesterians attended the Colgate Rochester Divinity School last Thursday morning for the 11th annual celebration of the life of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., the civil rights leader who was assassinated in 1968 in Memphis, Tenn. Among the guest speakers at Colgate Rochester were Dr. Larry Greenfield, school president; Mayor Thomas P. Ryan; Rev. Raymond Graves, president of the United Church Ministry. The main address was given by Dr. Wyatt Tee Walker, left, chief of staff to Dr. King from 1960-64. Right, Joyce Young, a member of the William Crimm Singers, during the celebration at Colgate Rochester. Below, a portrait of the late Dr. King illuminates the back of St. Bridget's Church during a memorial Mass that attracted more than 100 diocesans later that evening.

Broadway on BK Stage

"Barnum," the current Broadway hit, is the theme for this year's Bishop Kearney High School Kabaret "Shows of Shows," to be presented Jan. 30-31, 8:30 p.m. According to BK sources, tickets for Saturday night's performance are sold out, but there are plenty of good seats available for the Friday, Jan.

30 presentation.

Both performances are dinner theaters, starting with a catered dinner at 6:30 p.m. Dancing will follow the performances.

This is the fifth edition of the "Show of Shows" dinner theater and the cast includes parents, students and faculty. For reservations call Peg Gillen at 342-4000.
