Mrs. Hamdenniemi and Mrs. Ju.

A Common Element

Last month two foreign students, Mrs. Leena Hamdenniemi from Finland and Mrs. Julie Ju from Taiwan, paid a visit to Nazareth Academy. They visited Nazareth through the auspices of Ms. Sharon Steer who is associated with the Alternative Education Department.

Mrs. Hamdenniemi studies piano and attends English classes at the University of Rochester two nights a week. She graduated from Sibelious Academy in Helsinki and then taught theory, choral and instrumental music to boys and girls between the ages of 13 and 19.

The two women attended Sister Beth Sutter's Introduction to Everyday Music class, and Sister Donna Marie Cucci's classes, Theory I and Perosian Choir. In the afternoon they attended an art class and took a tour of the Nazareth Academy Music House. The Nazareth students learned, especially when Mrs. Hamdenniemi played "Hello Dolly" on the piano and Sister Beth accompanied her on trumpet, that music is a universal language.

Mrs. Ju arrived in the U.S. from Taiwan in 1975 after graduating from college with a degree in nutrition. She has studied Chinese painting and calligraphy, western painting and music. She is currently taking English at the University of Rochester.

Mary Ellen Ott, a sophomore at Bishop Kearney, was the recipient of the Winner's Circle $5 for the week of Jan. 14.

Going for the Shamrocks?

High schools in Monroe County have been invited to select a "Colleen of the Shamrocks" who will participate in several events scheduled around Rochester's St. Patrick's Day celebration in mid-March. The contest is sponsored by the United Irish Societies of Monroe County and the St. Patrick's Day Parade Committee.

The four runners-up also will receive cash prizes.

Contestants must be maintaining a minimum C average in their studies. Each will submit a 1,000-word essay on "Why I Am Proud of My Irish Heritage" and a 500-word essay on "Why I Would Like to Be the 1981 Colleen of the Shamrocks." She will also indicate her extra-curricular activities in school and/or the community. Deadline for school entrants is Feb. 2.

Among the St. Patrick's Day activities that are planned are: a Main Street parade and a five-mile "Run for Shamrocks" on March 14, and a dinner-dance on St.

Patrick's night, March 17.

Further information can be obtained by calling, evenings or weekends, Kevin Murray at 231-6583, or Mrs. Eileen Curran at 223-8934.
