Winners Circle

RapAround weekly will run a photo of a group of students taken somewhere in the diocese. One person will be circled and if that person brings the clipping to the Courier-Journal before noon of the Tuesday following our publication date, he or she will receive $5. This week's photo was taken at Aquinas in class. The person circled should bring the clipping to Joan M. Smith, Courier-Journal, 114 South Union St., by noon, Tuesday, Feb. 10 to receive $5.

NHS Contest on Horizon

St. Agnes National Honor Society officers Kathleen Lilly and Shari Stappenbeck have been nominated by the school's NHS chapter to compete for the $1,000 scholarship awarded by the national organization. The girls had to submit information on their academic standing, school activities, and outside interests, and a personal statement about their family background.

Kathleen Lilly is president of the St. Agnes NHS and has held offices in the glee club. She is the recipient of the 1981 Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizen Award. She also won a Certificate of Merit at the third annual Scholar Recognition Day sponsored by the University of Rochester Iota Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, Jan. 14.

Shari Stappenbeck is NHS secretary, and also serves as secretary for her senior class and the glee club.

Both students plan to attend college, where Shari intends to pursue a career in art and Kathleen plans to prepare for a career in either music education or arts management.

Dance Plans

Lynn O'Hara and Colleen McCallum will be the chairpersons for the Junior Prom at Our Lady of Mercy. The dance will take place on Friday, May 29, at Otto Schultz Center, Nazareth College. The girls and their committee are presently working on the theme, "invitations and orchestra."

Mercians To Appear on Stage

Mercy junior Susan Anderson, soprano; Michele Cimacata, alto; Christine Elliott, second-soprano; and senior Mary Ellen Adams, second-soprano, will represent their school in the All-County High School Chorus Concert to be held at 4 p.m., Friday, Feb. 7 at Penfield High School.

The chorus will include singers from high school glee clubs from throughout Monroe County. Conducting the program of American classics will be Gregg Smith from the Lawson Gould Publishing Company.

"Pegora the Witch," directed by Jim Murphy III, will be performed March 11-14 by the Mercy Children's Theater. Mercy senior Maureen Doohar will portray Pegora, freshman Kary Nekula will be Mother Marta, and freshman Dorothy Quinlan will be Mother Cloy.

Others in the cast will be: Patti Noll as King August; Karen Shane, Queen June; Anne Zink, Thopplebrock; Amy Keenan, Jester; Julie Ryan, Oug; Kate Gorman, Quag; Maureen Sullivan, Quagflagar.

Through competitive audition and elimination, Mercy senior Linda Wojciechowski was selected to participate in the 1981 All-County Senior High Band. The concert will be at 4 p.m., Saturday, Feb. 7, at Penfield High School.

The band is composed of a small group of students who have qualified to perform through their musical ability.

Linda has been playing the flute for nine years and has studied under an Eastman School graduate for five of those years. She intends to continue her study of the instrument in college.
