

Catholic Schools

Now for the Big Question

Eileen Livingston asks Mrs. Patricia Murphy and Michael many questions as she conducts the pre-kindergarten developmental history interview at Guardian Angels School in Henrietta.

Register for 1981-82

Catholic elementary schools throughout the Diocese of Rochester will be holding registration during the first week of March. Classes range from pre-school through grade eight. Bus transportation is provided free by the school districts within a 15-mile limit.

Parents wishing to register children should present birth and baptismal certificates and immunization records. Those wishing further information should contact their parish school or the Diocesan Office of General Education, 328-3210.

Time to Think School

While Sister Sheila Lubber, SSJ, principal of Johnson discussed the school registration program with a parent, Mrs. Johnson's two children, age four, were quite curious about the camera.

Tune In

Frank Capponi of Holy Cross School ponders his response in the new school library.

Butterfly Dancers

Stacey Perron and Tracy Driscoll of St. Mary's, Canandigua, spread their wings in school musical.

Alive to Learning

Pre-schoolers at Nazareth Hall get an early start with Mrs. Jean Fowler, teacher.

Word and World

Sixth graders Lisa Winn, Christine La Magna and Todd Sleight share meaning of "bread" as well as food in a religion project with Sister Marie Guiseppe at St. Anne's in Rochester.

Bishop's Statement

I wish to thank all of the men and women in the Apostolate of education in all Catholic schools. Yours is one of the prime means we have for neighbors or neighbors to greater knowledge. It helps our young people come to know God, neighbor and themselves.

In expressing this thank you, I wish also to read these words to become better with our Catholic schools. If there is one in your neighborhood, those who staff it will be pleased to visit at the quality of the programs.

These schools seek to make a specific contribution they can make to the neighborhood in which they are located. Your interest and support will help them do this.

An Education for All

Each child is a person whose integrity rests upon the fulfillment of his potential, and great care is taken throughout the school program to provide growth in Christian belief, values and attitudes.

Education is provided by a competent and dedicated faculty composed of both religious and lay teachers. Staffs are enriched by art, music and gym teachers.

The services of a school nurse, speech therapist, Title I teacher, librarian, psychologist and social worker are available to our schools.

The religious programs in all grades strive to teach children the fundamentals of our faith and to foster a love of God and neighbor through prayer, liturgy and life experiences.

Strong emphasis is placed on the child's preparation for the Sacraments of First Penance, First Communion and Confirmation.

Christian courtesy, self-discipline and respect for others reflect the values of our schools.

Our philosophy is to establish learning objectives and
