

Mission Day

Christ the King School Hall recently was transformed into a festive setting for its first Mission Day to raise funds for missionaries. Above, John D'Agostino, Mark Sippel, Gaetana Trovato, Cindy DeMarco and Sandy Supple enjoyed the event while at right a bit of fishing occupies Ryan White, Staci Costello, Becky Prack, David Seymour, Tom Perrin, Steven Fullone and Michael Fiorella.

Take This Quiz

You will note the fascination for quizzes on TV, a fascination which goes back to the almost forgotten "Queen for a Day" program and which predated the soap opera in popularity.

In January I gave a quiz on Saints and Others to a nice group of high schoolers at St. Mark's parish. Later Father Elmer Schmidt of Apalachin gave a similar test to his seventh and eighth grades in CCD, with surprising results. Our choir director and organist, Sister Claire Bonneau, SSND, who is music director at Bishop Kearney High School, gave me a copy of a similar quiz given at one religion class at the high school.

Now for your own testing, here are some questions from the Bishop Kearney High School quiz:

(1) Whose mother prayed for 20 years for his conversion? (2) Who received the five wounds of Our Lord in his body? (3) Who was the French maiden accused of being a heretic and burned at the stake? (4) Who is called the Apostle of the Indies? (5) Who died, taking the Sacred Host to safety? (6) Who made the first

Christmas Crib? (7) Who was the precursor of Our Lord? (8) Who was the only Apostle not to be martyred? (9) Who is the patron of the Catholic Press? (10) Who gave half his cloak to a beggar? (You are probably doing pretty well excepting for 5, which is St. Tarcisius; and 9 which is St. Francis de Sales.)

To continue: (11) To whom did Mary Immaculate appear at Lourdes? (12) Who was the American saint recently canonized, who came from a WASP family in New York? (13) To whom did Jesus teach devotion to his Sacred Heart? (14) Who is the patron saint of Catholic schools? (15) Who is called the Saint of the Impossible, a favorite of Danny Thomas? (16) Who was the young Carmelite nun who died at 23, and said: "I will spend my heaven doing good on earth?" (17) Who was the Basque soldier who was converted by reading the lives of the saints? (18) Who is the patron of a happy death? (19) Who is the patron saint of Poland? (20) Who was the 19th century's Italian Father Flanagan, who founded the Salesian Congregation for disadvantaged boys and whose work is now world famous? (Unless you are Polish you might miss on 19, St. Stanislaus of Cracow. Number 20 is St. John Bosco, whose life is one of the most attractive for young people to read, and admire.)

To continue: (21) Who was the first pope? (22) Who was the first martyr? (23) Whose feast is celebrated Feb. 14? (24) Who is the great English convert, born 1801, teacher and preacher at Oxford University, received into the Catholic Church in 1845, treated shamefully by a fellow convert, Cardinal Manning, who established the Catholic University of Ireland, who wrote the "Apologia Pro Vita Sua," and died universally venerated in 1890? (25) Who are the Jesuit martyrs of Auriesville?

Number 24 is the magnificent Cardinal John Henry Newman whose cause for canonization has been re-introduced at the insistence of Pope John Paul II himself.

If you are over 30 and went to Catholic schools, you probably got 70 percent right. If you are over 30 and didn't go to Catholic schools, you probably got about 40 percent. If you are under 25 and you have had little Catholic schooling, if you got 25 percent, let me know and I will send you a prize. If you are under 25 and went to Catholic grade or high schools, the percentage you get will depend on the degree of Catholic sense your reading, your home and your teachers had. I think the quiz presented at Bishop Kearney indicates that someone there is sensitive to the doctrine of the Communion of the Saints, and who has a healthy interest in history, biography and inspiration.

A Time To Celebrate Your Good Marriage

The Marriage Encounter Weekend

Sing Praise Together

A time to share
What's a Marriage Encounter weekend all about? Basically, it's a 44-hour experience (Friday evening to Sunday afternoon) designed to give married couples the opportunity to celebrate their lives together. It's a time to share feelings, hopes, joys, frustrations and dreams. In a private atmosphere — away from all the tensions and distractions of everyday life.

A time for us to be alone
There is no group discussion. On a Marriage Encounter, you concentrate on your spouse to such an extent that you're hardly aware of the other couples present. The presentations are given to the group as a whole. After each presentation the husband and wife have time in the privacy of their own room for their own personal sharing. Marriage Encounter is not a marriage clinic, a sensitivity session, or a retreat. It's unlike anything you may have heard about or experienced before.

A marriage encounter weekend is not something you need — it's something you deserve.
Up-coming weekends:
April 10-12;
May 1-3; 15-17;
June 5-7; 19-21.
A $15. registration fee is required to insure reservations. Couples are asked to make a contribution on the weekend. However, we do not want money to be the reason for any couple staying away from the Encounter. An anonymous blank envelope contribution is asked for on the weekend, and more details given then.

Make "a weekend." You deserve it.

A time to look at ourselves
What happens at a Marriage Encounter? A series of talks are given by a team of trained couples and a priest. Each talk gives a husband and wife an opportunity to look at themselves as individuals. Then they examine their relationship together, and how to build on the love they already have.

WE'RE READY TO GO: WEEKEND OF
When using this form to reserve a weekend, please enclose a check or money order in the amount of $15.00, made out to Couple Power.

WE NEED MORE INFORMATION
Mail to Couple Power or call 663-1727 and we will send you a brochure.
