Betty Dolce demonstrates the fashionable showmanship of the main lady of the play, Mame.

'Mame' at Nazareth

It's curtain time at Nazareth Academy this weekend. Students will present the Broadway hit musical "Mame" at 8 p.m., Friday and Saturday.

There's been a last flurry of hammering together and painting of the three set designs that will backdrop the play. Also, the performers have been hurriedly going over their lines, but come Friday evening the play will go on.

Cast members include Karen Bleier as Vera and Gloria Boehm as Miss Gooch. Patrick Maloney will play Ito, and Tony Edelman will portray eau Burnside Bishop.

Mrs. Jean Lally is play supervisor and Ms. Ellen Seeci has been handling the drama direction.

Admission is $3 for adults and students; $2.50 for senior citizens. Tickets may be purchased in the main office. For further information contact Ms. Mariangela Annucci at the school, 458-8583.

Not Long Now

Winners Circle

RapAround weekly will run a photo of a group of students taken somewhere in the diocese. One person will be circled and if that person brings the clipping to the Courier-Journal before noon of the Tuesday following our publication date, he or she will receive $5. This week's photo was taken at Notre Dame. The person circled should bring the clipping to the school office, to be sent to Joan M. Smith, Courier-Journal, 114 South Union St., by noon, Tuesday, April 7 to receive $5.

Mercy Notes

Our Lady of Mercy has two new librarians; Mrs. Madeline Miller, and Mrs. Inez Salvatore. According to Quill reporter Maria Molina, they replace Mrs. Patricia McNamara who left for a civil service position, and Mrs. Barbara Sandberg who left to care for her mother.

The yearbook (Veritas) patron drive held earlier this winter was labeled a success. The proceeds, $1,400, take the book's cost to students down from $18 to $16.

Mercy sophomore, Heather Dixon, won a free trip for two at an Ebony Fashion Show. Heather and her cousin Carol Thompson took advantage of the prize and visited San Francisco and San Diego.

Shares Mat Honors

Women Learn About Themselves

An in-school workshop on sexuality was held for St. Agnes freshmen on March 17. The seminar was a supplement to the sex education which is provided in the curriculum by the theology department.

Nurses conducting the workshop were Karen Eichelberger and Marie Riga Zielger, instructors at the University of Rochester School of Nursing; and Cynthia Bayer and Chris Kogut of the Rochester Adolescent Maternity Program, RAMP.

According to Sister Sheila Briody, chaplain and coordinator of the program, "the nurses were here to give facts... the physical and emotional aspects related to sexuality that the nurses deal with are further discussed in the context of Christian faith in our theology classes."

Topics dealt with during the workshop were: anatomy and physiology, feminine hygiene, and influences on sexual decision-making. The theology courses relating to these topics are: the person, family, and community course for freshmen; morality class for juniors; and the marriage course for seniors. Sophomores take health, with sex education a component of that course.

Winner

Steve Rebholz, a senior at Aquinas, was the recipient of the Winner's Circle $5 for the week of March 18.
