Father Joseph J. Moffatt, CSB, Aquinas Institute principal, has announced the appointment of two Aquinas alumni to the school staff.

Father Richard Kinsky, class of '49, has been named director of Public Relations and Recruitment.

Edward F. Ranalli, Jr., '64, has been appointed director of Development and Alumni.

Father Kinsky, whose appointment is effective July 1, has served as diocesan superintendent of schools since 1979. Four years prior to that assignment he had been principal of St. Pius X High School in Albuquerque, N.M.

He has a master's degree in U.S. history from Indiana University and an education specialist certificate from the University of New Mexico. His six brothers are all graduates of Aquinas.

Ranalli will assume some of the alumni duties carried on during the last 14 years by Father Tom Miller, CSB, class of '35. It was Father Miller who helped form the Aquinas Alumni Association in 1967. He has served on the Aquinas staff for most of the 46 years since graduating from the school.

Newark Opens Census

Newark — St. Michael Church here will launch a census May 14 of every dwelling in the parish boundaries.

The object of the census will be to update parish statistics and to obtain general information concerning all Catholics in the area.

Father Edward E. Steinkirchner, pastor, said the census will identify all baptized Catholics in the area, noting parish affiliation or lack of it, the ages and school enrollment of the children in the homes, and the parents' intent for pre-schoolers concerning their future enrollment in St. Michael's school.

There are about 4,000 dwellings in the parish. A committee of more than 200

RIT Students Begin Fund Raising Program

Students at Rochester Institute of Technology are currently conducting a "fund raising while learning" drive designed to raise money for Special Olympics and the CAP book, and help them learn "effective learning techniques" as well.

The students are approaching area businesses and individuals for donations or merchandise to sell at an auction on June 7 at Rund's Periwinkle Pub.

The money raised from the auction will benefit the Special Olympic events for mentally retarded children and adults, and for the CAP book service which finds homes for children with special needs.

The program is designed to give students "hands-on sales experience by raising money, through a direct selling effort, for non-profit organizations," according to I.C. Shah, an RIT instructor.

The students hope to raise $10,000.

Department and Secretary of State Alexander Haig, saying that the U.S. had known for several days the identities of those arrested in the December murder of Sisters Ita Ford, Maureen Clarke and Dorothy Kazel and Jean Donovan.

Speaking earlier in San Francisco, White described Secretary of State Haig's view of the murders as "cheap" and "unjustifiable." Haig had intimated that the four women were subversive agents in El Salvador.

Father Robert O'Neill introduced a motion that would provide for a Fall meeting among members of the Diocesan Pastoral Council, the Sisters Council and Priests Council to share ideas on what each consultative body hopes to accomplish in the coming year.

The motion was adopted 16-1-1.

Father Joseph Jankowiak also gave a brief report on the progress of the Institutional and Ministerial Change report. He said that the final document will be presented to the Priests Council at the June meeting.

HOW MUCH DOES YOUR FAITH MEAN TO YOU?

If you regard your faith as your most cherished possession, the greatest gift you have received, you can't wait to share it with others. Not that you must go to far-off mission fields. But you can help missionaries, wherever they may be, tell the Good News of Christ to others. How? By prayer and by sending a sacrifice to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. In this way, you support missionaries and mission dioceses in 97 countries around the world.
