

Misters Clean

Over 300 McQuaid students spent Sunday, May 3, picking up the litter on portions of routes 490 and 590. Highway officials estimated that over 3000 bags of trash were collected. Student organizer Larri Broomfield stated, "The most common items of trash were beer cans, scraps of old newspapers, glass bottles and food wrappers." The Winton Racquetball Club recognized the students' work by giving each one a free summer membership. John Galletto, club manager said, "This clean-up demonstrates that the McQuaid student body takes pride in our city and we salute them for their hard work."

Pupils, RPO Swing into Spring

Series III of the elementary school educational concerts given by the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra, under the direction of Isaiah Jackson, will be given May 27, 28, and 29.

These concerts are for fifth, sixth, and seventh graders. All area grammar schools are invited to participate.

The May series will feature music relating to nature's sounds and rhythms. Selections will include "The Snow is Dancing" by Debussy, "Flight of the "Bumble-Bee" by Rimsky-Korsakov, "The Elephant" by Saint-Saens, and "Dance of the Hours" by Ponchielli.

According to information received from the RPO Women's Committee, Golden Arrow Bus Lines is available to those schools having a contract with the line for $50 per bus. Arrangements can be made by calling Nan Johnson at Golden Arrow, 674-1030. City schools must arrange for Golden Arrow transportation through the City School transportation office.

Concert reservations must recognize the suicidal child and lists the warning signs. Free copies can be obtained from Dollie Wolverton, Program Planning and Innovation Specialist, Children's Bureau, P.O. Box 1182, Washington, D.C. 20013.

Suicide Aid Available

"Suicide Among Children and Youth: A Guide for the People Around Them" is a brochure designed for parents, teachers, caseworkers, clergy, and friends. It provides useful information on how to be made in writing and applications can be obtained from Mrs. Robert F. Horn, 101 Crestfield Drive, Rochester, N.Y. 14617. Schools interested in further information may contact Mrs. Horn at 342-3565, or Audrey Beck at the Rochester Philharmonic League Office, 454-2620.

A Special Day Planned

The Cardinal Mooney High School Carnival begins tomorrow night and will continue through Sunday. A special event incorporated into the festival is the Handicapped Children's Morning to be held 10 a.m. to noon, Saturday, May 16.

According to Barbara Burgmaster, chairperson of the event, 250 handicapped

Learn How This Summer

Cardinal Mooney High School will conduct classes in drivers' education. Classes will be held Monday through Saturday, 8 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., beginning Monday, June 22. The course ends Thursday, July 30.

Cost of the program is $160 and registration is limited. Registration for Mooney students will be Tuesday, May 12; for non-Mooney students, Tuesday, May 26. Information and application forms are available in the school's main office.

Artists On Parade

The music and art departments at Nazareth Academy will present the annual Spring Concert and Fine Arts Festival, at 8 p.m., on Thursday, May 14. Featured will be the Chorus, Band, and Perosian Choir.

Musical selections will include Broadway show tunes, classical selections, and movie themes.

The front hallway will contain many pieces of artwork completed by students in the art department.

The art show is free; tickets for the concert are $3 for adults and $2 for students and senior citizens. Children under 12 are admitted free of charge. Tickets may be purchased at the door or from any member of the performing groups.

Ms. Marian Buckman from Oisten Temporary Job Service gives advice to sophomore Ronnie Ross during the recent Business Careers Day.

Taking a Look At the Work World

As part of Business Careers Week, April 6-10, the Business Department at Nazareth Academy sponsored a Business Careers Day on Thursday, April 9.

This annual event, organized by Sister Ruth Magin, department head, was designed to show students what the work-a-day world is really like. The theme of this year's program was "Your business training now may lead to fascinating careers later."

Guest speakers from a variety of Rochester businesses, employment agencies and business schools spoke on a wide range of topics concerning every aspect of a business career. Ann Dougherty, owner and proprietor of Fabulous Flowers, Inc., and who is a graduate of Nazareth, explained the problems and perils of starting and maintaining one's own business. Kim May DiCarolis explored the possibilities of careers in computers; Debbie Poggie explained the ins and outs of being a legal assistant; Nan Houser, manager of one of the Prudential Company's offices, demonstrated management skills and the art of acquiring them in a large corporation.

Both traditional and non-traditional business careers were explored during the day.

A Day to Celebrate

Bishop Kearney High School will hold its 16th Commencement Ceremony at 3 p.m., on Sunday, May 31, at the Eastman Theater. Father Patrick Braden, president of St. John Fisher College, will preside over the exercises and give the main address.

On the morning of graduation there will be a class Mass celebrated by Father Lawrence Gross, school chaplain. Following will be a senior breakfast at the Mapledale Party House which will conclude with "senior superlatives." Awards will be given to seniors in categories such as best singer, best dancer, best dressed, and most likely to succeed.

Sports Who's Who

BASEBALL — Charley Kelly pitched his first varsity no-hitter to lead Cardinal Mooney (5-0, 9-0) over visiting Greece Olympia, 8-3. Jim Nietopak hit a two-run homer in the first inning. Dave Dasch also drove in two runs and Kelly helped his own cause, smashing a triple to score another run.

McQuaid (5-0, 9-1) beat East High, 8-3, at McQuaid. Pitcher Greg Casick raised his record to 3-0 and Bruce Gittleman doubled home two runs to spark the Knights.

John Sheridan pitched a five-hitter and struck out five as Bishop Kearney (3-1, 5-4) clubbed Monroe, 8-1, at Monroe. Mark Oberlies cracked a two-run homer and Scott Smith was two-for-four with two runs batted in.

Greg Merriman pitched a two-hitter, striking out 13 batters and walking only two, as Cardinal Mooney whipped Edison Tech, 10-1, at Mooney.

Tony Alomar's grand slam home run highlighted a six-run fifth-inning rally that lifted Aquinas over Franklin, 15-11, at Franklin. Alomar has three homers thus far this season.

McQuaid pitcher Peter Palermo came within one pitch of a perfect game as McQuaid beat Bishop Kearney, 5-2, at Kearney. Palermo retired the first 20 batters, then ran up a three-and-two count on Tim O'Connor, potentially the final batter of the game. O'Connor walked, however, as did Scott Smith, and both scored on a hit by Mark Oberlies. Bruce Gittleman smacked a three-run triple in the third inning for McQuaid.

Cardinal Mooney centerfielder Scott Vara homered, tripled, and singled, and drove in five runs to lead the Cardinals'

18-hit attack on Jefferson, 18-5, at Mooney.

Peter Palermo had four hits and scored twice and John Spencer hit a bases-loaded double to lift McQuaid to a 10-5 win over host Charlotte.

Pitcher Ron Nazzaro provided the defense, hurling a no-hitter, to lead Bishop Kearney over Charlotte, 15-0. Tim O'Connor, Mike Beaudrie and Andy Scheakel drove in four, three and two runs, respectively.

GIRLS SOFTBALL — Lynne Sanaszewski drove in six runs and Marcey DiMartino hit a three-run homer to lead Cardinal Mooney to a 17-1 victory over St. Agnes at Mooney. Lisa Waters added a solo home run for Mooney.

Donna Dedee drove in three runs to help Bishop Kearney to a 9-6 win over Nazareth Academy.

Senior pitcher Terry Gutberlet struck out 15 batters and threw a one-hitter for Cardinal Mooney in a 21-1 victory over host Nazareth Academy.

TRACK — Mike Connelly won the high hurdles and the intermediate hurdles as McQuaid posted a '98-48 victory over Cardinal Mooney at East High.

Lyndon Gross was a triple-winner in Bishop Kearney's 123-23 victory over East High. Gross won the high hurdles, high jump and the triple jump events.

Aquinas' Lou DiFabio was a double-winner, capturing the 400- and 800-meter events, as the Little Irish cruised past Franklin 96-22.

Dan Geen of McQuaid was awarded the Outstanding Performer trophy at the 17th annual Hornell Invitational track meet.

Geen set school records in winning both the shot put (54 feet, 11½ inches) and the discus (159 feet, 10½ inches). Both distances are the best in Section 5 so far this year. Bishop Kearney won the team title in Hornell, scoring 29 points. McQuaid finished second with 27 points. Kearney won the 3200-meter relay in a meet record of 8:15. Members of that relay team are Matt Abate, John Shields, Greg Rappel and Jim Oberst. Oberst also won the 1600-meter run.

The Aquinas two-mile relay team of Steve Winter, Paul Caufield, Kevin O'Sullivan and Lou DiFabio finished second in the North Amherst Relays near Buffalo. Bennett High of Buffalo was first.

GOLF — Freshman Peter McCarthy shot 38 as McQuaid beat Cardinal Mooney, 6½-2½, in a City

Catholic golf league match at Oak Hill.

GRAD-NOTES — Bob Hagan (ex-Bishop Kearney), a member of last year's Canton Tech hockey team that won the national junior college championship, will be transferring to the Rochester Institute of Technology later this year. Hagan scored 15 goals and added 26 assists during a 21-10-1 season for Canton.

Peter Shields (ex-Bishop Kearney), a freshman at Cortland State, captured first place in the vault competition at the Division II National Gymnastics Championships in Oshkosh, Wis., then followed that performance with a second place finish in the Division I Championships at the University of Nebraska. Shields scored a 9.9 on his final vault, only to be beaten by Olympian Ron Galimore of Iowa State, who scored a perfect 10.0. Shields has been named All-American twice now.