Ed Alletto, a member of Theatre of the Deaf, directs the seventh grade class through a brief lesson in "signing."

Greece School Salutes Year of Disabled Person

In conjunction with the International Year of the Disabled Person, Our Mother of Sorrows School sponsored Human Awareness Day on Tuesday, April 14. As part of the program, the nationally acclaimed Theatre of the Deaf troupe performed for the assembled school body.

The group acted out some brief one-act plays for the students and also met later with the seventh and eighth grade classes for some personalized instructions in the art of communicating with the hearing impaired.

Coordinators for the event were Miss Robbie Kowba, a junior high science teacher, and Mrs. Ruth Smith, school nurse. Other programs for the students during the day included viewing films supplied by the March of Dimes and the American Red Cross.
