The Gift of Life

Cardinal Mooney students Kyle Anderson, Diane Palozzi, Richard Secours and Bill Keifer were assisted by a Red Cross volunteer during the school's blood drive. It was the second drive of the 1980-81 school year and Ann Marie Casson was the chairman. Jeff Swiatek was in charge of promotion and Mrs. Mary Jane Nier, school nurse and Red Cross Club moderator, coordinated the drive which resulted in 98 pints of blood.

The Pabalan Sound

Angie Pabalan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Javier Pabalan of 34 Pine Knoll Drive, Chili, and a graduating senior of Cardinal Mooney High School, gave a violin recital on Monday evening, May 25 in the school auditorium.

With Sonja Shelton, piano accompanist, Angie performed four selections: Chaconne in G Minor by Vitali; the first movement from Mendelssohn's Concerto in E Minor, Op. 64; Nigun from Ernest Bloch's Baal Shem; and Praeludium and Allegro by Fritz Kreisler.

Also playing first violin with a string quartet that included Chris Wu, second violin, Dan Doherty, viola, and Nadine Monchecourt on cello, Angie played two movements from the Quarter in F, Op. 18 No. 1 of Beethoven.

According to school sources, Angie comes from quite a musical family. She, along with her brothers and sisters, have all played in the Rochester Youth Philharmonic Orchestra under the direction of Howard Weiss.

Notre Dame Students Among Winners

Elmira — Four Notre Dame High School students were among those who received Kiwanis Club scholarships in ceremonies May 28 at the downtown Holiday Inn.

The six honorees and their parents were guests of the Kiwanis. The scholarships are awarded on the basis of scholastic proficiency, school citizenship, volunteer community activity and need. Students living in the Elmira City School District and the Elmira Heights School

Musical Excellence

The Nazareth Academy Perosian Choir was awarded an "A" for its performance in the recent New York State School Music Association competition at Fairport High School.

The 45-member choir, under the direction of Sister Donna Marie Cucci, is composed of juniors and seniors who have had at least two years of musical training. They give several concerts each year, including TV performances, and appearances in Midtown Plaza.

Beverly Higgins, senior, will be a feature dancer in tomorrow night's dance performances.

Orators Take Act To New York City

Nine students from the Rochester Diocese participated in the Grand National Catholic Forensic Tournament, May 21-23 in New York City. The tournament was held on the campuses of Columbia University and John Jay College. The awards ceremony was held at the Sheraton Centers. Over 1,000 students and 500 coaches and judges attended the opening Mass at Saint Patrick's Cathedral on May 21.

Representing the new Rochester League of the National Catholic Forensic League (NCFL) were Lucy Hung of Bishop Kearney, and Anthony DiNitto of Aquinas in original oratory; Steve De LaRoche of Aquinas and Joe Lanzafame, BK, in extemporaneous speaking; David Hoskins of John Marshall and Adrian Goding, Aquinas, in dramatic performance; Tracy LaDue, John Marshall and Gene Romano, BK, in oral interpretation.

Michael Norton of Bishop

David Hoskins of John Marshall was a trophy winner. He was a quarter finalist with his dramatic performance of "Death of a Salesman."

Accompanying the students were Ms. Joann Hamm of John Marshall; Vincent Dollard, Aquinas; Sister Evelyn Marie Carlin (regional director), BK; and John Miller of New York University, a Kearney alumnus and 1978 National Finalist.

Snap!

The St. Agnes April European travelers included a bevy of photographers. Recently they met in the school library to relive experiences and take a look at their photographic skills.

Sports Who's Who

BASEBALL — Peter Palermo hurled a four-hitter and drove in the only runs of the game with a triple as McQuaid shutout Spencerport, 2-0, in a first-round game in sectional action at Irondequoit. It was Palermo's fifth shutout of the year, lowering his earned run average to 0.76, and raising his record to 10-1.

Tim Terhaar pitched a four-hitter with 10 strikeouts to lead Bishop Kearney over Edison, 7-2, at Kearney.

Aquinas pitcher John DiNardo threw a two-hitter and went 3-for-3 at the plate, himself, including a triple and a homer, to lift the Little Irish over East High, 5-3, at Aquinas.

Tim Higgins' one-hitter lifted McQuaid over Franklin, 7-1. Larry Penazak homered for the Knights.

Mercy High's track team won their first Private-Parochial league championship by beating Bishop Kearney, 110-21. Mary Jane Lambert set a school record in winning the 100-meter dash in a time of 13.0 seconds. The two-mile relay team of Lori Calcagni, Dawn Vukelic, Chris Lenhard and Julie Brooks also set a school record of 11 minutes, four seconds.

McQuaid captured the team title at the Section 5 track championships at the University of Rochester. McQuaid won the 400-meter relay, discus, 200-meter dash, 400-meter run, and long jump events. Cardinal Mooney's Greg Reyner won the shot put and Jim Oberst of Bishop Kearney won the 1,600-meter run.

Ann Battaglia scored the winning run on a passed ball in the eighth inning to lead second-seeded Bishop Kearney to an 11-10 victory over 15th-seeded Hilton in girls sectional softball action.

Chris Tuite of McQuaid beat Steve Maybeck of East High, 6-3, 6-3, to win the City-Catholic tennis league singles title. McQuaid's doubles team of George Walsh and John DiVincenzo also was victorious.

McQuaid clinched the City-Catholic golf league title by beating Aquinas at Braemar Country Club. Tom Bayer led McQuaid with a one-over-par 37 to earn medalist honors.

GRAD-NOTES — Pat "Hondo" Holmes (ex-Cardinal Mooney) completed his junior year on the Swarthmore College wrestling team with a 34-5 record and fourth place in the NCAA Division III national tournament. Also, for the second year in a row, Holmes was named All-American. In three years of college wrestling, Holmes has a 57-8 dual meet record and a tournament mark of 33-11. His 90 wins ties him for the career high at Swarthmore and he still has one more year of eligibility left.

Bob Tuite (ex-McQuaid) finished his tennis career at St. John Fisher College with a 51-18 singles record and won the Private College Athletic Conference (PCAC) title for the second time in three years. Tuite is a biology major and carries a cumulative academic average of 3.9.

Niagara University baseball pitcher Greg Tuttle (ex-Aquinas) led the Purple Eagles' staff with a 3-0 record, one save, and a 2.96 earned run average, highlighting an otherwise average season for the Niagara team, which finished the year with an 11-16 mark.
