St. John of Rochester

More than $500,000 has been pledged towards the building of a new church at St. John of Rochester parish, Fairport. The figure represents 67 percent of the $750,000 goal set by the parish Church Building

Campaign Committee.

Father Bernard Dollen, pastor, said, "The response to the campaign has been overwhelming, and it is hoped that we can be dedicating a new church by 1982."

State Assemblyman Tom Hanna and Webster lawyer Gerry Barrett present Father William Hart, pastor, with the first donation for the play area.

Holy Trinity, Webster

Parishioners at Holy Trinity parish, Webster, are currently raising funds for a "Creative Play Area" designed to "provide physical fitness and fun" for the children in the parish. The playground, designed by architect Robert Leathers, will feature a spiral slide, cable bridge and climbing pyramids, according to a parish release.

Donations for the play area are $3 each. Those wishing to donate to the fund drive may contact the rectory office, 265-1616.

Our Lady Good Counsel

Bishop Dennis W. Hickey will join Fathers Paul Wohlrab and Lawrence Sansom to concelebrate Mass at 12:15 p.m. on Sunday, June 7, at Our Lady of Good Counsel Church on Brooks Avenue, to mark their 40th anniversaries in the priesthood. A reception in the school auditorium will follow.

St. Salome, Irondequoit

The annual St. Salome Summer Festival is scheduled for June 12-13 on the church grounds, 4282 Culver Road. The festival will begin with a spaghetti dinner in the school hall from 5 to 7:30 p.m. on Friday. All are invited.

Polka Day

Elmira — Sts. Peter and Paul Parish will conduct a Polka Day Sunday, June 14, beginning with Mass at 12:15 p.m. with a guest choir, followed by a lunch and music for dancing.

The lunch will be at 2 p.m. and provide a la carte selections. And then from 3 to 6 p.m., Joey Augustine will provide music for dancing. There will be a $2.50 admission charge for the afternoon's program.
