

Mercy Names Assistant Principal

Kathleen M. Wisner has been named assistant principal at Our Lady of Mercy High School effective July 1. Miss Wisner is the first lay person appointed to the position in the 53-year history of the school. For the past 10 years, she has been a business teacher at Mercy. In assuming her duties, Miss Wisner will continue to teach one class of business law and maintain her position as Parent-Faculty liaison. Miss Wisner is an alumna of Mercy and completed her undergraduate studies at Villa Maria College and D'Youville College.

Aquinas Drive Reaches $406,000

The Aquinas Institute Development Program drive has reached $406,000 in pledges and response continues to mount, according to campaign officials.

The figure represents 32 percent of the Phase I goal of $1.25 million.

Dr. William Stephan, chairman, expressed confidence that the pledge figure will rise substantially during the next few weeks "since many of our committee members have not yet reached all prospects."

He noted that the major gifts committee has scheduled a series of meetings for major prospects over the next two months.

The Development Program aims at assuring the progress of the 55-year-old high school.

Winner

Kathy Doyle, a sophomore at Bishop Kearney, was the recipient of the Winner's Circle $5 for the week of May 27.

Celebrates Anniversary

Father Edward J. Wajda, pastor of St. Helen's Church in Glendale, Ariz., and a native of Rochester, will return to this diocese to celebrate a Mass of Thanksgiving on his 25th anniversary of ordination, at 4 p.m., Sunday, June 14, at St. Stanislaus Church. Father Wajda, Son of the late Roman and Helen Wajda of Rochester, was ordained by Bishop James E. Kearney June 9, 1956.

'Brud' Holland To Speak At Red Cross

Jerome H. (Brud) Holland, an Auburn native and member of the National College Football Hall of Fame and the chairman of the American Red Cross, will be the keynote speaker at the annual meeting of the Rochester-Monroe County Red Cross Chapter at noon, Wednesday, June 10, at the Genesee Plaza Holiday Inn.

A former U.S. ambassador to Sweden, Holland has been the Red Cross chairman since April 1979. His career has included teaching, industrial personnel administration, research, college administration, diplomacy and business.

He received B.S. and M.S. degrees from Cornell University where he was twice chosen football All-American. He has a Ph.D. from Pennsylvania University and has received 22 honorary degrees.

Set for Next Year

New officers of the Our Lady of Mercy Parents Association are: Annette Biche, secretary, Blessed Sacrament parish; Frank N. Coon, president, Assumption of Our Lady; Mary Joan Fix, vice president, St. John of Rochester; Paul D. Fix, treasurer, St. John's.

Mercy High To Graduate 50th Class

Our Lady of Mercy High School will honor its 50th graduating class at ceremonies on Tuesday, June 16, at the Eastman Theater. Bishop Matthew H. Clark will give the commencement address to the 159 members of the Class of 1981.

To commemorate the occasion, the graduation class will wear gold tassels on their caps. Also, members of Mercy's first graduating class will process into the theater before them.

On Monday, June 15, the graduates will be honored by the faculty and the Alumnae Association at the traditional Rose Mass in the Motherhouse chapel. A reception will follow.

Message to D.C.

Eighth graders at St. Lawrence School did not let a golden opportunity pass unused. Their class trip to Washington, D.C., included visits to Rep. Barber Conable and Frank Horton to whom they delivered 1,400 letters supporting tuition tax credits. With the letters are, from left, Katherine Gilbert, Valerie Tandoi and Tricia Ryan.
