Youngsters enjoyed the day recently at Olympic Park on Scottsville Road. Rochester police officers were on hand to give lessons in safety.

GROW Service Offered

An agency to help find employment for "mature individuals, 45 years or older of low income" is trying to "get the word out" that help is available.

GROW (Gaining Resources for Older Workers), offers a three-step approach for clients trying to re-enter

Haig's Brother Named Prexy Of LeMoyné

Syracuse (RNS) — Father Frank R. Haig, SJ, brother of Alexander Haig, U.S. secretary of state, has been named president of LeMoyné College.

The Baltimore Jesuit, 52, was appointed by the college's trustees at a meeting June 15.

Father Haig is a former president of Wheeling College in West Virginia, also operated by the Jesuits. He also headed the physics department at Loyola College in Baltimore.

RSMs Plan Vocation Program

The vocations team of the Sisters of Mercy has slated a day-long program for women interested in discernment of vocations for 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., Saturday, July 11, at the Mercy Motherhouse, 1150 Blossom Road.

Persons interested in attending have been asked to call Sister Sheila Stevenson, (716) 244-2175; or write to her at Our Lady Queen of Peace Convent, 605 Edgewood Ave., Rochester, N.Y. 14618.

Student Awarded Scholarship

The American Legion Auxiliary of New York State recently awarded Mary Alice Beauchamp, a senior at St. Agnes High School, a scholarship of $500 for use in the medical field.

Miss Beauchamp is one of 10 recipients of scholarships given by the auxiliary statewide.

the job market, according to Esther Doherty, job developer for the CETA-funded program.

A client is evaluated on what he or she can do, counseled on proper procedures for interviews, etc., and then job opportunities are provided.

It is Doherty's task to "find people who can use our services, and then find employers who need the workers. We offer dependability, years of experience and people who really want to work to local business," she said.

GROW is located at 168 Clinton Ave., in Rochester and is available to all those living in Monroe County.

Be a Sport!

This summer, treat the whole family to a fancy resort for stay-at-home prices.

In fact, without ever leaving the City, Junior can learn to swim, Sis can take up soccer, Gramps can join senior activities and they can all enjoy concerts together.

Plus, there are special programs designed for disabled people and the new PuppetStuff bus, bringing the world of puppetry to groups, events and playgrounds.

It's the City Department of Recreation & Community Services' Summer Recreation Program, your first resort for a summer to remember.
