

I'm a Sib's kid

our loveable raccoons: no feeding necessary: ... just give lots of hugs and squeezes!

Please don't feed the raccoons... they thrive on love alone. The newest members of Daekor's pot belly™ menagerie are thoroughly tame and housebroken, won't climb your trees or get into your trash. And, they won't settle in the chimney, either! Incredibly soft and cuddly, they'll be ready and waiting when you come in from school with all your mads and glads. Electronically inspected to be safe for the youngest hugger, too. Ready for back-to-schoolers in 4 totally lovable sizes. 16", $18; 12", $12; 9", $8; 5" mini, $4.
