Legion of Mary Plans Celebration

Elmira — The Southern Tier Curia Legion of Mary has planned a special event to mark the 60th anniversary of the first Legion of Mary meeting which took place in Dublin on Sept. 7, 1921.

The event, on Sunday, Sept. 13, also will be the annual general reunion of the Southern Tier Curia.

The celebration will begin with vespers at 4 p.m. at St. Peter and Paul's Church. That will be followed by a procession displaying banners of the Legion of Mary to the Holiday Inn on East Water Street.

There a dinner will be served at 6 p.m. Featured speaker at the dinner will be Patrick Kilner, who is on the staff of the National Conference of Catholic Bishops, Evangelization Office in Washington, DC. Kilner is the promotor of lay celebrations of evangelization, three of which were conducted this year in the United States.

Active members of the Legion of Mary invite their auxiliary members and any other interested persons to attend. Information and tickets may be obtained by calling Beatrice Kissane, 734-9736; Betty DeBlasio, 733-6292; or any active Legion member.

St. Ann's

Hornell — Father James Connolly, SJ, will be the principal concelebrant of a charismatic Mass, at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, Sept. 17, at St. Ann's Church. Father Joseph McCaffrey will preach the homily.

St. Margaret Mary, Apalachin

Parishioners of St. Margaret Mary Church, Apalachin, spent a week last month working and praying in poor homes at Nazareth Farms, W.Va. Pictured with Father Elmer Schmidt, bottom center, are Kari Betts, Tim Loso, Pat and Sue MacDonald, Bob McKay, Rosalacka, Sue Schneider, and Ron and Len Thomas.

Memorial Service at Hospital

Elmira — A memorial service will take place at 7 p.m., Wednesday, Sept. 16, in the Dunn Chapel at St.

Joseph's Hospital.

The Pastoral Care Department at the hospital, sharing in the grieving of those who have experienced a death in the family, has such a service every two months for all who have died at the hospital during that period.

Families of the deceased are invited to the service and to a small social gathering in the lower cafeteria of the Dunn Memorial following the service.

Anyone else wanting to share in the occasion is welcome.

Heart to Heart

Camille Lepak, right, county Heart Association chairman, presents a heart model to Sister Walter Anne, principal of Blessed Trinity School in Auburn. The school raised the most money in the association's annual Bike, Walk, Jog for Your Heart.

Powell Series Set for View

Mt. Morris — Three evening sessions of the "Free to Be Me" film series by Father John Powell will be shown at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 20, 21, 22 at St. Patrick's Church here.

The general public is invited.
