

At right, Sister Clare Fitzgerald, SSND, addresses the elementary school teachers who attended the annual diocesan teachers conference.

Teachers Convene To Assess Their Goals

"Catholic educators are to turn the world upside down on a new axis, if they are to follow the mission of Jesus!" With these words Sister Clare Fitzgerald, SSND, challenged the 1200 school teachers in the diocese at the annual Teachers' Conference Sept. 28 at Cardinal Mooney High School, and on Sept. 29 at St. Mary Our Mother, Horsheds.

Following her theme, "The Mission of Jesus: the Ministry of Education," Sister Clare told Catholic educators that they cannot minister in education if they do not follow the mission of Jesus. She told them that we are in an age of a new Exodus in which we are moving from the passage of the security of the tombs — even though they be dark and damp and cold — to enter into the risk of sunlight and to move into the trackless deserts to tell the Pharaohs of today to "Let my people go."

The conference was sponsored by the diocese as a means of unifying the teachers throughout the system and recommitting them to the role of the uniqueness of Catholic school educators.

Historic Churches Subject of Talks

A workshop on historic religious properties will be held by The Landmark Society of Western New York from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 24, at St. Luke's Episcopal Church, 17 S. Fitzhugh St.

The workshop, designed for clergy and laity interested in maintaining historic religious buildings, will feature a number of speakers noted in the field of historic preservation, among them: Father Thomas Phelan, dean of the School of Humanities and Social Sciences at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute; Michael Lynch, restoration coordinator for the New York State Historic Preservation Office; and James O'Hara of Pike Stained Glass.

Pre-registration is required. The fee is $15. Persons interested in attending have been asked to call 546-7029 for details.

Married 45 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kolb will celebrate their 45th wedding anniversary on Oct. 17. To help them celebrate the event at a family dinner will be their five children: Jane, Daniel, and Mary Kolb, Mrs. Diane Whelan, and Mrs. Rita Knittel.

Mr. and Mrs. Kolb have 12 grandchildren and are members of Holy Rosary parish. They were married in Holy Apostles Church.

Nurses Dinner Set for Oct. 30

The St. Mary's Nurses Alumna has scheduled a dinner and short business meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 10, at the Burgundy Basin Inn. Social hour is at 6:30 p.m., followed by dinner at 7:15 p.m. James Lissow, guidance counselor at Greece Arcadia High School, will be guest speaker.

For reservations contact Ruth Friday Courtney at 247-2963, or Mary Ann Murphy Palermo at 385-4307. Deadline for reservations is Oct. 30.

Community Get-Together

The faculty of Our Lady of Mercy High School will be guests of the Parents Board at a cocktail hour from 2 to 4 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 18, in the school cafeteria. Faculty are invited to bring their spouses with them.

Chairpersons for the social are Nancy and Bob Kalke.

Ecumenical Workshops Scheduled

"That All May Be One," a workshop offered by the diocesan Commission for Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs, has been scheduled at four times and sites.

The first presentation will be Saturday, Oct. 24, at Westminster House, Presbyterian Church, North Avenue, Owego.

The others will be Saturday, Nov. 14, St. Joseph's Church, 206 Fremont St., Wayland; Saturday, Feb. 20, 1982, St. Theodore's Church, 168 Spencerport Road, Rochester; and Saturday, March 27, St. Patrick's Church, 97 W. Bayard St., Seneca Falls. All will run from 9:30 a.m. to 2:15 p.m.

Bishop Matthew H. Clark, in endorsing the workshops, cited the Vatican Decree on Ecumenism: "Concern for restoring unity pertains to the whole Church, faithful and clergy alike. It extends to everyone, according to the potential of each, whether it be exercised in daily Christian living or in theological and historical studies."

"Understanding our own Church's teaching on ecumenism," Bishop Clark added, "and learning from the practical experiences of parishes in our own diocese are two components of the workshops that will be of interest and concern to all those involved in the mission of fulfilling Christ's own prayer, 'That All May Be One.'"

A $5 registration fee will be charged and those attending should bring their own lunches. Beverages will be provided. Further information is available from Margery S. Nurnberg, 919 Farnham St., Elmira, N.Y. 14901.

Fr. Falcone To Address Four Gospels

Father Sebastian Falcone, director of St. Bernard's Institute, will give a six-week lecture-discussion series, "In the Footsteps of Jesus: Testimony of the Four Gospels," from 7 to 9 p.m., on Sundays starting Oct. 18, at St. Joseph's School hall, Gebhardt Road, Penfield.

The series is sponsored by St. Joseph's Adult Education Committee. Phone reservations are required by Oct. 14 through Sylvia Yesul, 586-7708, or Judy Watt, 586-0565. A $3 fee is charged and senior citizens will be admitted free.
