Equal Time

Could you survive without TV?

ST. AGNES

MANDY KELLER
Junior

"If I didn't know about it — if it wasn't around I wouldn't miss it. I watch TV about two hours after school, another two hours at night and then on the weekends. I can't think of any program that really is bad. I think the best program is General Hospital. The kids are all watching the soap operas because they're on, right after school."

JENNIFER MAKEY
Junior

"Yes, I think I could. I'd have more time to do other things. I watch TV about three hours a day and more on the weekends. I don't like Bosom Buddies. I think it's a stupid program. One of the best programs is Guiding Light. The soap operas have become popular because of the suspense and they are realistic."

ROSE HODGE
Senior

"Yes, I only watch an hour after school for the soap operas. I think Mork and Mindy is the worst program on because it's stupid and dumb. Guiding Light is one of the better programs because it focuses on young peoples' lives. If there is a good movie on I'll take time to watch it."

SUE MARCHAND
Senior
tennis

"Yes, I don't watch that much TV because I like listening to music more. I don't like Too Close for Comfort. There's not much to it. The jokes aren't that funny. I like the movies on TV because they are different; regular programs are all the same."

JUDY DOUCETTE
piano

"No, I wouldn't because it's a way of communicating with the world. It tells you what you need to know about society. I think Mork and Mindy is a bad program because it doesn't make sense. I think Dance Fever is a good show because I like the dancing and the competition. I watch about 12 hours of TV a week."

JULIE GRAFF
Senior

"Yes, because there's better things to do than always watching TV. I watch it about 10 hours a week. Love Boat is one of the worst shows. It's unrealistic. I like General Hospital. It is relaxing watching it; it's an escape program and an interesting one. I think it's the individual actors and the way the writers keep the stories moving that have made the soap operas popular."

BETSY McTURK
Senior
Explorer Post 45

"Yes I could, especially if I had enough needlepoint work and sewing to do. I spend too many hours watching TV. I don't like Dallas. I think the characters are unrealistic. I don't think any family has that many problems. I like the old musicals. I like that type of entertainment."

LOUISE de LAROCHE
Junior

"Yes, because I'm too busy. I watch TV after school or when I'm bored at night. I think the worst show is The American Hero because it's dumb. It doesn't make sense. A good one is General Hospital because it's an exciting story. Soaps have caught on because they have real life things about teenagers."

Welcome, Sisters!

It was Big/Little Sister Day at St. Agnes on Friday, Sept. 25. The juniors entertained the freshmen with a "gong show." Juniors Mandy Keller as a movie star, Monique Cerilli as "Tweety," and Ann Lootens as the professor, hosted the show. The acts were judged by Trisha Pullinzi, Mary Wamcer, and Linda Gavaghan.

Five Score for McQuaid

Merit Scholarship semifinalists have been named by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

McQuaid semifinalists who will be in competition for merit scholarships to be offered in 1982 are: Ronald Brone, who has been active in Junior Achievement and dramatics, and is a member of the indoor track team, the Magis and Che programs, and tutors students at McQuaid and Holy Childhood, with career interests in psychology; and John DiVincenzo, a member of the school tennis team, dramatics club, and Magis program, with an interest in biochemistry.

Also: Matthew Huggins, yearbook editor, school paper writer, glee club member, and underclassmen tutor, with interest in the scientific field; Gregory Nunn, member of the volleyball and tennis teams and of a floor hockey league, and in the fall play two explorer groups, with interests in social sciences and law; Thomas Warth, a member of Magis, glee club, National Honor Society, cross country indoor and outdoor track (he was the Section Five indoor track mile champion), and associate editor of the school paper, with plans for majoring in political science at Notre Dame.

Commended students by the Merit Program are Mark Bradshaw, Shawn Carey, Paul Cloos, Thomas Conside, Curt Fleishman, James Laiuppa, Donald Lerch, and Mark Ouweleen. These students scored among the top five percent of the Merit Program participants who took the qualifying test.

Little Irish On the Move

The Aquinas football team will play Fairport at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 9, at Holleder Stadium. At 2 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 18, the Little Irish go against Cardinal Mooney at the Mooney field. Next on their list is East High at 1 p.m., Saturday, Oct. 24, at East, and at 1 p.m., Saturday, Oct. 31, they will take on McQuaid at the Elmwood school field.

The final game will be at 7:30 p.m., Friday, Nov. 6, against R.H. Sperry, at Holleder Stadium.

BSU Meets

Nazareth Academy's Black Students United recently held an assembly to interest and invite new members to join the organization. BSU officers, Vicki Hardy and Sheridan Kulp, spoke to the students about the aims and goals of the BSU, which is now in its 12th year. Esterellia Williams gave a dramatic monologue on Harriet Tubman.

High Goal Set

Bishop Kearney students kicked off their annual magazine drive on Oct. 2. During the next few weeks they will be offering over 300 popular magazines to the community. Proceeds from this year's sale will go towards the school's educational program, two new girls sports teams and improvements to school grounds and playing fields. Pictured above are last year's top salespersons. In first row from left are: Larry Staub, Laura Anne, and Bonnie Geraci; back row: Mike Norton, Chris Tuckers and Denise Ugino with Sister Joyce, drive coordinator, at top. To order magazines, records, tapes, or to renew current subscriptions, call the school at 342-4000.

Winner's Circle

RapAround weekly will run a photo of a group of students taken somewhere in the diocese. One person will be circled and if that person brings the clipping to the Courier-Journal before noon of the Tuesday following our publication date, he or she will receive $5. This week's photo was taken at Aquinas during class change. The person circled should bring the clipping to Joan M. Smith, Courier-Journal, 114 South Union St., by noon, Tuesday, Oct. 13, to receive $5.
