AQ Board Gets Woman Chief

Mrs. Kathleen Lynd, a member of St. Ambrose parish, has been elected the first woman president of the Aquinas Board of Trustees. She will succeed Dr. William Stephan, who after serving as president for three years, will now serve as vice president.

Mrs. Lynd has been active in all phases of Aquinas life and is presently in charge of school dramatics.

Other board officers are Father Joseph Mofatt, school principal, secretary, and John Lagnese, Xerox Corp., treasurer. Other board members are Mrs. Patricia Bell, Father John Cavanaugh, John Coleman, Father John DeSocio, Father Joseph Dorsey, Michael Duffy, Harry Fitzpatrick, John Foley, Father Robert Klem, Fred Krenzer, Salvatore Leccese, David Miller, Father Richard Ranalletti, John Riedman, Thomas Riley, John Schantz, William Schmitz, and Robert Thomson.

Major goals set by the board are to make Catholic education at Aquinas available to all young men who seek it, actively support the Capital Fund Drive, to develop an active public relations program, and to provide a strong recruitment program.

Sit Down Quickly and Do Twenty

To counteract all the wet, gloomy, bleak weather of the past two months, here are 20 ways (besides shating a hot toddy) to give and get a warm glow.

1. Tell the grocery cashier how nice her hair looks, how efficient she is or how tiring her job must be.

2. Put a love note in your kids' lunch bags.

3. Take your spouse's suit to the cleaner and present him/her with the loose change ($5) you find in the pocket.

4. Tell the babysitter how good you feel leaving the toys in her charge.

5. Buy ONE junk food item for the brown baggers.

6. Wave at the postman even though you know he's leaving nothing but bills.

7. Call your parent, grandparent, brother, sister, child, best friend long distance just to hear his voice.

8. Write a letter to someone who's given up hearing from you.

9. Fix spaghetti, pizza or tacos for supper.

10. Call somebody who's housebound just to chat.

11. Take some non perishables to church for the emergency food basket.

12. Let another driver out and into the flow of traffic.

13. Buy your mate an unexpected gift.

14. Read aloud the last part of the Fourth Psalm at the supper table starting with "Oh Lord, let the light

15. Send somebody (author, actor, newscaster, homilist, next door neighbor, your spouse) a complimentary note.

16. Invite somebody to lunch.

17. Repaint your front door a bright, welcoming color.

18. Have a garage sale and donate a percentage of the proceeds to charity.

19. Buy two fresh posies. Stick one on the kitchen table, give the other one away.

20. Take a present to your child's religious ed class — YOURSELF!

Retreat Day

On Oct. 4, Father William Cosgrove, pastor of St. John the Evangelist Church in Clyde and St. Patrick's in Savannah, conducted a Day of Recollection for members of the Finger Lakes Curia, Legion of Mary. Highlights of the day were a Mass, social hour, and dinner.

At Your Parish.....

St. Thomas the Apostle

A demonstration of candy making will be a feature of the Rosary and Altar Society of St. Thomas the Apostle Church meeting after a 7:30 p.m. recitation of the Rosary Oct. 21, in Our Lady's Chapel.

Marcy Gabello and Linda McDonell will show the making of peanut butter cups, chocolate covered cherries, truffles and suckers. A $1 donation will cover the cost of making the candies.

St. Charles Borromeo

An old fashioned Country Fair will be staged on the grounds of St. Charles Borromeo Church, 3003 Dewey Ave., this weekend.

The fair opens 8 p.m., Friday, Oct. 16; 3 p.m., Oct. 17; and 1 p.m. Oct. 18.

St. Boniface

"Matchmaker," a four-act comedy by Thornton Wilder, will be presented by the St. Boniface Players, at 8 p.m. nightly, from Thursday, Oct. 22, through Saturday, Oct. 24, in St. Boniface School, Gregory Street.

Director is Tom Cole, who has headed the play troupe for three seasons.

St. Stephen's

Geneva — A pass-a-dish supper will be held following the 5:30 p.m. Mass Saturday, Oct. 24, at St. Stephen's School hall. Hot dishes may be left in the school before Mass. The supper, sponsored by the Parish Life Committee, will feature entertainment and fellowship, and will take the place of the usual coffee hours following the Masses on Sunday morning.

St. Mark's

The St. Mark's Rosary Society will stage an Oktoberfest from 8 p.m. to midnight, Saturday, Oct. 24, in the church hall, 54 Kuhn Road, off Long Pond Road. Tickets at $10 per person are available by calling 392-8195, 392-9142, or 225-8910.

St. Bernard's

Scipio Center — The annual, traditional blessing of the graves will be held following the 10:30 a.m. Mass, Sunday, Oct. 18, at the cemetery of St. Bernard's Church here. Father Paul Cloonan, pastor, will officiate.
