

Share the joy of your Faith in with the Missions

A small refugee in Southeast Asia is comforted by a mission Sister. Mother Teresa, in an interview at International Headquarters of The Society for the Propagation of the Faith in Rome, said, "All of us are missionaries . . . it is through us that God loves the world." MISSION SUNDAY, October 18th, is our special opportunity to love the whole world. Please pray and sacrifice for the Missions on Mission Sunday!

Good news is not to be kept to oneself, but to be shared. "I bring you news of great joy, a joy to be shared by the whole people." (Lk 2:10) Proclaiming the Good News of Christ to all remains the top priority of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. (Leon V. Kofod photo)

This local Sister in western Samoa and her small charge seem to exemplify the words of St. Peter in his first letter: "Without seeing Him, you are already filled with a joy so glorious that it cannot be described, because you believe." (1P 1:8) The Society for the Propagation of the Faith supports the training of native novices around the world. Share the joy of your faith in Christ on Mission Sunday. (Leon V. Kofod photo)

A two mile walk to school isn't so bad, if you hurried down and welcomed him joyfully." (Lk 19:6) Missions find lots of I welcome the children in the name of Christ, teaching, heal water. (Maryknoll Photo)
