Moving With the Spirit

St. Bridget's Church continued its resurgence as an important part of the inner city community at Mass on Sunday, Oct. 11. The 10:30 a.m. service was highlighted by the return of the church's gospel choir, above, under the direction of William Crimin; and, left, the confirmation of Cora Lee Boles by Bishop Matthew H. Clark, center. Flanking the bishop are, left, Father Daniel O'Shea, pastor of St. Bridget's, and, far right, Virginia Robinson, Ms. Boles' sponsor. The church has also recently inaugurated numerous outreach groups and even revived its Boy Scout troop, which was well represented at the Mass.

Charismatics Set Services

Father Edward McDonough, CSSR, will lead healing and restoration services at 7:30 p.m., Saturday, Oct. 24, at St. Rose's Church, Lima; and at 7:30 p.m., Sunday, Oct. 25, at St. John the Evangelist Church in Greece.

The paraliturgical rites are open to all persons regardless of faith or denomination.

The Redemptorist priest is widely known in charismatic renewal circles, and has a regular ministry based in Boston. His visit is sponsored by "Rayma," a monthly charismatic publication in the area.

PRISON BOND DEBATE

John O'Keefe of the Rochester Correctional Facility and Mark Philipps of Voters Against the Prison Construction Bond will debate the merits of the $500 million proposal at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, Oct. 22, at the Downtown United Presbyterian Church.

Deadline

The deadline for submitting news to the Courier-Journal is noon on Thursday preceding the following Wednesday's publication.
