Rochesterians In Belgium

Leuven, Belgium — Two Rochester diocesans are engaged at the American College of the University of Louvain here this year.

Father Frank E. Lioi, former rector of the now defunct St. Bernard's Seminary, is working as director of planning and development at the school.

Gary Tyman is a first year seminarian at the school.

CFC Needs Homes for Youth

Catholic Family Center has issued an urgent call for 14 families willing to open their homes as foster parents for young Vietnamese or Laotian refugees.

"These young people, mostly boys, are coming to the United States to start a new life by themselves. They have been encouraged by their own families to flee from the difficulties of their homeland. This is a very dangerous undertaking, and they often are risking their own lives for freedom. It may often cost a Vietnamese or Laotian family $300 or $400 in order to escape. This is a tremendous burden for them and their families," Mrs. Joyce Daley, CFC staffer, said last week.

The center has placed 33 Vietnamese and Laotians between 13 and 18 in foster homes. The CFC anticipates placing a total of 50 youngsters in the next few months.

The center, through the Monroe County Department of Social Services, provides board, medical aid and clothing for the refugees. They are eligible to receive such support until they turn 21 or until they graduate from high school and become employed.

Further information on the CFC program is available by calling Mrs. Daley or Bernadette Slater, (716) 546-7220.

INDIA: SIXTY LIVING DOLLS

THE HOLY FATHER'S MISSION AID TO THE ORIENTAL CHURCH

For the first time ever, 60 lucky boys and girls in Piravom, south India, have happy faces, combed hair, and a chance to learn the ABC's. "They're getting to know God too, of course," says the Mother Superior. "Today they're living dolls. Ten years from now they'll be building the new India—as seminarians and novices, plumbers, electricians, farmers, and future teachers." But there are thousands of little children in India and throughout the Near East who are not so fortunate. The streets are their home. Their food and clothing, what they can beg—or steal. Who will care for them? For just $14 a month ($168 a year) you can "adopt" one of these little ones—provide all the comforts and love they need to grow like the living dolls in Piravom. We'll send your child's picture and history. He, or she, will write. If you can't adopt now, your gift in any amount—$200, $20, $2—will help a needy, homeless child. Please fill in the coupon below today.
