RAP AROUND

Joan M. Smith, Editor

Cardinal Mooney students discuss the advantages of Latin to visiting seventh and eighth graders at last year's Open House. This year's event is being directed by Sister Margaret Mary Walsh, RSM, and Mrs. Mary Klein.

Seeing What It's All About

Who said Latin is dead! Acoording to Cardinal Mooney sources, seventh and eighth grade students and their parents will be able to see that the Latin language is alive and well during the school's Open House, 7 p.m., Thursday, Nov. 5. They will also get a good look at many other lively high school subjects and activities.

A slide show will introduce the program and then guests will be given a guided tour of the building. In addition to activities planned by each department, gudiance personnel will be available to answer questions about programs and requirements; the physical education staff will demonstrate the skills of various sports; yearbook and newspaper staffs, photography club members, as well as students from other extracurricular activities will demonstrate their arts.

The aim of the evening is to provide an opportunity for students and parents to tour the building and to meet the people who are a major part of the school day. Refreshments, served by the Women's Guild, will follow the program.

Exciting Season

The Aquinas Little Irish will end their season against Sperry High School at 1 p.m., this Saturday, Nov. 7, at Franklin Field. They are coached by Tony Ferrara, John Pezzulo, and Richard Pilliter.

Something About a Hat

School Service

The Action For People Association (AFPA) is preparing for Cardinal Mooney's annual Thanksgiving food drive. The project will begin on Monday, Nov. 16, and continue until Friday, Nov. 20.

Aquinas Evening

The Aquinas Sports Booster Club is sponsoring a dinner, Thursday, Nov. 19, at Little Anthony's Party House. Dinner will include an open bar from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. Tickets may be obtained by calling Dennis Sadler, athletic director, at 254-2020.

Sales Hit Top

Magazine sales results are in at Our Lady of Mercy High School. The school reached its goal of $45,000 with the efforts of top salespersons like Debbie Shaughnessy who had 40 sales, and Ellen Winterkorn with 37 sales. Both girls brought in $400.

The sophomore class was tops in sales and top homerooms were: freshman, 305; sophomore, 206; junior, 201; and senior, 207.

Winner

John Buck, a McQuaid freshman, was the recipient of the Winner's Circle $5 for the week of Oct. 21.

A Senior Milestone

A Visiting Sunday At Bishop Kearney Nov. 8

Bishop Kearney High School, will hold its annual Open House, 1-4 p.m., Sunday, Nov. 8. Tours of the school will start at 1 p.m., and continue until 2:30 p.m., at which time the Kearney Marching Kings band, under the direction of Ray Shahin, will perform on Clark Field.

Administration, guidance personnel, and faculty members will be available to answer the questions of all visitors, as well as the officers of the BK Fathers' and Mothers' Clubs. The Kearney Players, under the direction of Sister Evelyn Marie, will be in dress rehearsal for ther upcoming presentation of "Arsenic and Old Lace" in the auditorium. Faculty and students of the math and science departments will present displays and demonstrations.

Donald DellaVella, athletic director, and the coaching staffs, will be on hand to explain the school's athletic philosophy, policies and programs. Guides for the tours will members of the school's Ushers and Varisty Clubs and National Honor Society. Refreshments will be served by the Mothers' Club.

Celebrating The Past

October 15 was Founders' Day at Nazareth Academy and it also marked the first in a long series of senior events and happenings which will culminate in graduation in June.

Seniors were invited to an afternnon at the convent where they shared in a prayer service conducted by senior Patricia Montrois. Following the service, Sister Carol Cimino, assistant principal, told the 110-year-old history of the school from its beginnings on Jay Street.

St. Agnes Play Offers Suspenseful Drama

Martha Nelson, a junior at St. Agnes, has been in many productions before. However, she will debut as a leading character in the St. Agnes production of "Wait Until Dark," to be presented at 8 p.m., Friday and Saturday, Nov. 13-14, in the school auditorium.

Martha will portray Susy Hendrix, a young blind woman who unknowingly possesses a doll filled with heroin. When a ruthless killer comes after it, she forces him to fight on her own terms — blindness. According to Martha there is difficulty for a sighted person to portray a blind woman. She must not look at the person to whom she is speaking. Although Martha finds this character challenging she doesn't identify with the role of Susy because she has always been capable of relying on herself, while Susy does not acquire this trait until the end of the play.

Other cast members include Michael Dambra as Harry Roat, and Kevin Butler as Mike Talman. Also included are Stacey Chamberland, Ken Brady, Rod Morris, Alicia Burgos, Elizabeth Sullivan and Tony Noce.

Tickets are $3 and will be available at the door, or can be reserved by calling the school at 424-1330. There will be an admission-free senior citizen performance at 8 p.m., Thursday, Nov. 12.
