

Diocesan Educators Meet in Canandaigua

Diocesan principals met at a workshop sponsored by the General Education Department last week at the Notre Dame Retreat House in Canandaigua. Prime item on the agenda was an informative discussion regarding a marketing program for Catholic schools.

Bishop Matthew H. Clark, on hand for an open forum, presented a plaque of appreciation from the Education Department to Mrs. Gina Ouweleen, who, after five and a half years, is stepping down as president of the Rochester Federation of Catholic Parents. "On call at the drop of a hat," was what Sister Edwardine, school superintendent, said of Mrs. Ouweleen's participation in Catholic education.

'Serve Until It Hurts'

During a recent service dedicated to the International Year of the Disabled Person, Mother Teresa, foundress of the Missionaries of Charity, addressed a gathering of the Festival of Light in Sydney, Australia. Mother Teresa urged the large audience at Macquarie University to "serve until it hurts" and seek out the poor. The Festival of Light is an interdenominational, pro-morality movement. (RNS)

Polish Primate Meets with Pope

Vatican City (RNS) — Archbishop Jozef Glemp, the Roman Catholic primate of Poland, fresh from an historic summit with the leaders of Poland's Communist Party and Solidarity union federation, met here with Pope John Paul II.

The Vatican said that Archbishop Glemp, accompanied by Cardinal Franciszek Macharski of Cracow, had been closeted with the Polish-born pontiff at the Vatican palace for several hours Nov. 6.

The audience with the pope came two days after the archbishop, Communist Party chief Wojciech Jaruzelski and Solidarity leader Lech Walesa met in Warsaw for two hours to discuss setting up a "front of national agreement and reconciliation."

The meeting was without precedent in Poland's 35 years of Communist rule.

The official Polish press agency, PAP, said the leaders had exchanged views on ways to overcome the economic crisis and social unrest that has wracked the country for 16 months.

Also discussed, said the agency, was the possibility of setting up a national agreement front, "a permanent platform for dialogue and consultation of the political and social forces on the basis of the Constitution."
