An 'Arranged' Marriage Reaches 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Emilio Proia renewed their marriage vows last New Year's Eve at St. Augustine's Church, 50 years to the day of their marriage in the Church of Santa Barbara in Fontana Liri, Italy.

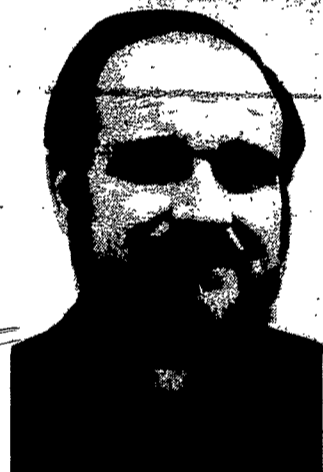

Proia was born just outside that town, but spent his childhood in Caledonia, after his parents moved there in the early part of the century. Proia later became associated with Mrs. Proia's brother, the late John G. Bianchi, who, with his wife, Carmella, arranged the marriage between Proia and the then Rosa Bianchi.

Following the wedding, Proia brought his bride to the United States, eventually settling on Arnett Boulevard, where they have lived for the past 40 years. They have four children, Amerigo Proia, Liberta Milke, Bernard Proia and Paul Proia. In addition, they have ten grandchildren and one great-grandchild.
