

Wolfe, left, holds Man For All Seasons Award with his daughter, Sister M. Catherine, OP, and Father Pegnam, pastor of St. Thomas More Church.

Frank Wolfe Honored

Seven parishioners of St. Thomas More Church received awards from pastor Father Francis Pegnam for service to the parish at a banquet last Tuesday night in the school hall.

Among the recipients was Frank E. Wolfe, former treasurer of the Courier-Journal and a member of the Diocesan Finance Committee, who was honored with the Man For All Seasons Award.

Upon presenting the award, Father Pegnam stated the honor was for a man "who from the very beginning has been a beacon of light and a tower of strength, who gave generously of his talents and who has been a great source of inspiration to all in St. Thomas More Parish."

Other parishioners receiving awards were: William Magovern, usher emeritus; Marion Gertner, Lillian Michels and Louise Faucher, all of whom received the Margaret Roper Award; Donald Ver Hoeven and Charles Michels.

Business in Diocese

Jerry Flynn, widely known as a master of ceremonies, will be chairman of the Monroe County Unit of the American Cancer Society's 1982 Crusade.

He will oversee all volunteer fundraising efforts, from the door-to-door residential campaign to the ongoing year-round special events.
