

Raymond Fleming To Be Ordained

Rev. Mr. Raymond H. Fleming, the Montana-born former member of the National Theater of the Deaf, will be ordained to the priesthood for the Diocese of Rochester by Bishop Matthew H. Clark at noon, Saturday, April 24, at St. Mary of the Assumption Church in Scottsville. A reception will follow the ordination rites in Hartmann Hall, adjacent to the church.

Deacon Fleming is assigned as deacon intern at St. Mary's. He also holds an assignment with the magnet parish for the deaf now being established.

The 30-year-old son of Raymond and Margaret Fleming of Kalispell, Mont., attended St. Ann's School and Butte Central High School in Butte.

He is a 1974 graduate of Gallaudet College in Washington, D.C. He followed this with two years at Washington Theological Union and another two years with the National Theater of the Deaf. He completed his studies for the priesthood with two years at St. Bernard's

DEACON FLEMING

Seminary. In addition, he took Clinical Pastoral Education at the California Medical Facility in Vacaville, Calif.

SSNDs Pledge to Work Against Nuclear Arms

Wilton, Conn. — The Provincial Chapter of the School Sisters of Notre Dame meeting here has resolved to take public action in support of nuclear disarmament.

According to a release from Sister Marie Therese, SSND, delegate from the Rochester community, the sisters will send representatives to events sponsored by the Leadership Conference of Women Religious (LCWR) in Washington, D.C., and at the United Nations.

The release stated, "Individually, each SSND will seek by means of prayer, readings, discussions and workshops to make herself more socially aware and concerned about the question of nuclear disarmament."

According to the release, inspiration for the resolution came from the words of George F. Kennan, former ambassador to the Soviet Union: "The effort to control and abate the nuclear-weapons race is not, after all, a favor we are doing for the Russians any more than it is a favor to ourselves. It is a dictate of the security and survival of all Western civilization."
