

RAP AROUND

Joan M. Smith, Editor

A Fun-filled Show

The Cardinal Mooney halls are alive with the sounds of Frank Loesser tunes as the cast rehearses the songs and dances from the Damon Runyan classic "Guys and Dolls". The leads are: Lynn Bell as Miss Adelaide; Shelia Mills as Miss Sarah Brown; David Georger as Nathan Detroit; Matt Burns as Sky Masterson. The production will be presented at 8 p.m., on Friday and Saturday, April 30-May 1, and on Friday and Saturday, May 7-8 in the Mooney auditorium.

Getting the Act Together

Finding talented youngsters to perform in drama productions comes easily for Mrs. Kathy Lynd, Aquinas Institute drama coach. An experienced actress, she has presided over a revival of interest in thespian activities at the school. Membership in the Aquinas Drama Club numbers 100 including students from Aquinas, Nazareth and other high schools.

Mrs. Lynd has been very successful in enlisting the services of several talented local professionals for the Spring musical "Guys and Dolls." In charge of choreography is Mrs. Adeane Giagos, currently a dance instructor and choreographer for East High School.

Brian Maruscak, who is active in local theater groups including the Webster Theater Guild and St. Agnes High School, will be designing the sets and creating the lighting effects. Musical director is David Martin of the Aquinas music department, formerly first trumpet with the Eastman Jazz Ensemble.

Maruscak, Mrs. Lynd and Mrs. Giagos study the lightboard and discuss possible lighting effects for the school's Spring production.

Mrs. Georgianne Menz, an Aquinas parent who holds a degree in music education, will be rehearsal pianist.

"Guys and Dolls" will be presented at 8 p.m., Friday, April 30, and Saturday, May 1, in the Aquinas auditorium. For ticket information call 254-2020.

Girls Basketball Season Swings into Sectionals

By the time this story goes to press, the first games of the 1982 Section V Girls Basketball games will have been played. Class B, C and D teams played last Saturday, March 6, and the double A competitions were played last night, Tuesday, March 9.

Sectional excitement began with the Eastman Kodak annually sponsored basketball team pairing at a breakfast and press conference, Friday, March 5 at the Genesee Plaza Inn, downtown. Silver trophies were presented to the top seeded teams. The teams were: Greece Athena, class AA, with a record of 16-1; Geneva, class A, with a record of 12-1; Byron-Bergen, class B, a 14-0 record; Keshequa, class C, a record 11-1; Campbell, class D, a 14-0 record.

The double A second seeded team was Bishop Kearney with a 14-2 record and is coached by Sharon Kowalski. Cardinal Mooney, under coach Kathy Krenzer, was seeded 12th, and Nazareth, coached by Dick Hendrick, was seeded 15th.

Private/parochial basketball all-star team members are: Julie Aspenleiter and Margaret Cook from Bishop Kearney; Melinda Titus, Our Lady of Mercy; Lynn Banaszewski and Debbie Wagner, Cardinal Mooney, and Ellen Monaghan, Nazareth.

It's Time To Register

Students entering Nazareth Academy this coming September for the first time can register for 1982-83 courses from 2 to 4 p.m., Sunday, March 14, and from 7 to 9 p.m., Wednesday, March 17.

At those times, in-coming freshmen and upperclasswomen will be able to make their course selections, receive transportation information and be measured for uniforms. Information and forms for tuition aid will also be available on those dates.

Girls wishing more information about registration are asked to call Nazareth Academy Guidance Office at 458-5640.

Mission Plans Set

Mercy's Mission Day Bazaar will be from 7 to 11 p.m., Friday and Saturday, March 19-20. The event, the school's annual thrust to help the missions both locally and around the world began with an assembly on Feb. 26. The Sacrifice Mass, when students are asked to sacrifice and pray for the missions, will be Friday, March 12.

A spaghetti supper, sponsored by the Catholic Schools Mission Crusade (CSMC), will be from 6-8 p.m., on Friday, March 19. Sister Mary Borromeo, Italian and Latin teacher will prepare the homemade sauce. Tickets, which may be purchased at the door are $2.50 for children, and $3.50 for adults.

This year's theme is "Together we can Make Things Happen," and it is inscribed on buttons being sold by the CSMC.

WINNER

Frank Sapere, a senior at McQuaid, was the recipient of the Winner's Circle $5 for the week of Feb. 24.

AQ Class of '86 Has Award Winners

Father Joseph Moffatt, Aquinas principal, announced the incoming freshmen winners of the William Stolze and Leah Marlowe scholarships.

Winners of the Stolze Scholarships are: James Marchese, St. Charles Borromeo; Leon Sawyko, Greece Athena; Carl Scarpulla, Holy Ghost; Mark Wiltberger, Greece Hoover Drive. These students are eligible for grants totalling $1,250 over four years.

Leah Marlowe Scholarships were awarded to: John Englert, St. Pius X; Timothy Fischer, St. John's Greece; Jeffrey Goldstone, St.

Janette displays her red ribbon art.

Red Ribbon Winner Accepted at School

Nazareth Academy junior, Janette Dauenhauer, whose work was recently awarded a red ribbon at the Sibley's Scholastic Art Awards Exhibit, has received another honor. As a result of the preview of the show, Janette has been awarded direct acceptance into the School of Visual Arts of the New York State Summer School of the Arts.

Normally, students wishing to take part in this New York State Program must submit a portfolio of their art and meet standards for competition for the limited number of spaces in the program. This special Award of Recognition is given to a select member of students who are accepted without a portfolio review.

Janette's award came as a complete surprise to her. She has been involved in Nazareth's art program for three years and is interested in pursuing a career in art. She also enjoys creative writing and has entered several writing contests.

A Sunday Gathering At Mercy

The Parents' Association of Our Lady of Mercy High School is sponsoring a Mother/Daughter Mass and breakfast, at 9:15 a.m., Sunday, March 14, at the Motherhouse chapel. Breakfast will follow the Mass, which will be celebrated by Father Vincent Panepinto.

Tickets are $2.50 per person. Charing the event are Mary Joan Fix of Fairport, and Cookie Knight of Pittsford.

Army Band To Play

McQuaid will host the U.S. 1st Army Band at a special assembly at 8:47 a.m., Tuesday March 23.

Winner's Circle

RapAround weekly will run a photo of a group of students taken somewhere in the diocese. One person will be circled and if that person brings the clipping to the Courier-Journal before noon of the Tuesday following our publication date, he or she will receive $5. This week's photo was taken at Mercy during lunch. The person circled should bring the clipping to Joan M. Smith, Courier-Journal, 114 South Union St., by noon, Tuesday, March 16, to receive $5.

COUR
Pat men
Mat