

Ecumenical Activities

Photos by Terrance J. Brennan

More than 125 diocesan ecumenical officers attended the three-way conference last Tuesday, March 9, at the Lutheran Church of the Incarnate Word. The day-long meeting for Roman Catholic, Episcopal and Lutheran officials was highlighted by guest speaker Father Robert Kress, above right, associate professor at the Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C. Also attending were Bishops Robert Speers of the Episcopal Diocese of Rochester; and Matthew H. Clark, left, with Sister Mary Wintish, director of Urban Ministry. In a related event, some 400 attended an ecumenical prayer service at Sacred Heart Cathedral last Sunday. Right, Bishop Edward K. Perry, leader of the Upper New York Synod of the Lutheran Church of America, delivers the homily.

Cursillo Notes Jubilee

The diocesan Cursillo Movement will celebrate 25 years of Cursillo in the United States with a day-long event May 22 at Our Lady of Mercy High School.

Cursillo was first opened in the U.S. May 27, 1957, when Spanish Air Cadets training in this country held a weekend in Waco, Tex., for a group of Spanish-speaking men.

The movement has spread throughout the country and is active in 150 dioceses, including Spanish Cursillo in 48 dioceses.

Further information on the 25th celebration is available by contacting Rochester Cursillo Movement, P.O. Box 9568, Rochester, N.Y. 14604.

HELP SISTER SPREAD THE JOY OF FAITH

Sister Margaret shares a special kind of joy—the joy of Christ's love. Her presence in this tiny village in Indonesia brightens each day in the lives of the people there. Christ's love for each one is reflected in her.

Missionaries everywhere are dedicated to sharing Christ's message of joy and hope. You can help spread all this good being done for the poorest of our brothers and sisters around the world.

Please pray and sacrifice for the Missions.

Thank!

YES, I want to share my blessings with the poorest of children, families, refugees and all who need the healing love of Christ.
