Holy Childhood Delivers Candy In Time for Easter

For the 16th consecutive year, eight tons of candy are being delivered to the School of the Holy Childhood on Buffalo Road; candy that the students and friends of the school sold and that will be delivered to awaiting customers carrying out the personnel's guarantee that it would be delivered "no later than the Easter Bunny!"

According to school sources, the School of the Holy Childhood is Fanny Farmer's single largest client for this type of fund-raising event and what is impressive is that all of the students at the school are mentally retarded. They, their parents, school staff and friends all participate in selling the candy.

The person responsible for coordinating this effort (more than 6,000 orders are individually sorted and packaged) is Sister Benita Nicholas, SSJ. The candy sale for her epitomizes "the spirit that exemplifies Holy Childhood. Kids of all ages, races and ability pull together and somehow, every year — with God's help — sell almost $100,000 of candy. It's really incredible."
