Tax Credit Receives Support

McQuaid Jesuit High School students load a tractor-trailer with some of the thousands of letters from concerned area parents and many other supporters of tuition tax credit legislation during a brief ceremony at the Pastoral Center last Tuesday, March 30. Students from 10 diocesan grammar schools joined in the rally along with the Bishop Kearney Marching Kings Band. Left, Gina Ouweleen, past president of the Catholic Schools Parents Federation, and Bishop Matthew H. Clark share the moment with Barbara Riola, right, a student at the School of the Holy Childhood. The truck, once loaded, then continued its trek across the state before its expected arrival in Washington, D.C., on Thursday, April 1, as part of the nationwide rally at the Capitol.

Student Nurses Complete Semester

Hornell — Students in the freshman class at St. James Mercy Hospital School of Nursing received gold crosses signifying completion of their first semester of nursing studies March 21 at St. Ignatius Loyala Church.

Awards were presented to two freshmen and one junior. Joan Cullen of Hornell received the Reidman Agency Award of $450, given to a student with scholastic ability and need.

Geraldine Albanese of Mt. Morris, a freshman, and Eileen White of Hornell, a junior, received the Jan. R. Travis Award, an ounce of sterling silver. The awards are presented to a junior and freshman who demonstrate humanitarianism toward his or her peers.

Date to Circle
