

Education Group Issues Report

In a memorandum circulated to "personnel serving the Church of Rochester," and dated March 30, the design committee for a diocesan board of education stated:

"The design committee has been meeting regularly to plan the structure and functions of a board of education for the

"The design committee's working paper views the board of education as a consultative body. The function of the board will be to examine educational needs and to recommend to the bishop policies which govern educational ministries; to review and evaluate the decisions made by the Division Director of Education in implementing board policies; and to evaluate the effectiveness of board policies.

"A main concern of the design committee has been the relationship of the diocesan board to existing structures on the local level.

"In a working paper, the concept of subsidiarity finds expression as 'the diocesan board will provide a consistent forum for local information and needs. It in turn will help to reinforce and guide local boards so that the overall educational ministry in the diocese will be enhanced.'"

Former Chaplain to Be Honored

Friends of the Rochester Psychiatric Center will honor Father L. James Callan at the group's seventh annual award dinner May 5 at the Chatterbox Club.

Father Callan, who has been named pastor of St. Thomas the Apostle parish, was chaplain at the center from 1955 to 1978.

A spokesman for "the friends" said that Father Callan's "accomplishments during the 23 years at the center were numerous but you might say his crowning achievement was the building of the St. Jude's Chapel."

Anyone wishing to attend the dinner should contact Mrs. Daniel Saperstone at 442-2423 or Mrs. Walsh at 586-6160.

Double Jubilee

Two School Sisters of Notre Dame, Sister Mary Alphonsa and Sister Mary Bilhildis, are celebrating this year the 60th anniversary of their entry into religious life. The Sisters will be honored at a special Mass, 1 p.m., Saturday, May 8, at Holy Ghost Church. A reception in the school hall will follow from 2 to 4 p.m. Sister Alphonsa has taught elementary school in this diocese for 41 years. Sister Bilhildis has served here for the past 15 years.
