EQUAL TIME

What are the toughest things girls your age have to cope with?

NAZARETH ACADEMY

PAULA CUCCARO
Senior
jogging club

"It all depends on age. At 17 or 18 they realize they are going on to college and will be leaving their friends behind; but when freshmen, I would say it was coping with parents. In the sophomore year it was the school work and it was difficult being a sophomore. The problems are varied depending on what year you are in."

LORIE TIMM
Junior ski club

"It's difficult throughout high school and especially when a freshman, when it's trying to be accepted and getting used to a school. In the junior year you worry about grades, and in the senior year it's whether or not you'll be accepted into a college. Also developing relationships with girls and boys and dealing with families are tough things to cope with."

LIZ WINTER
Senior
Student Council rep

"Family problems, and coping with college decisions. It's so important to choose right. We're also maturing and there are decisions to make about relationships because we're at the age when we're getting married. It's thinking about commitments and about being on your own."

JILL BRADY
Senior class president

"I think as a senior the future is the most difficult thing to cope with. I'd say I'm anxious about it education-wise, meeting new people, and being able to do the things I want to do. Deciding what you want to do with your future and what you want to do with your life are tough to cope with."

KERRY SCHAUER
Senior
Spectrum staff

"The worry about the future is there for everyone, not just for girls. With the way the world is we don't know how much of a future we'll have. For us girls, we have to go out and face a world that's predominately male. It's mostly anxiety over the future."

TAMMY FITZWATER
Sophomore

"Well, it depends on where you are in high school, where you live and how strict your parents are. I think the toughest thing to cope with is the school work and trying to keep up with outside activities. You have to plan your time. I don't find a lot of pressure from peers."

PATRICIA RYAN
Freshman
cheerleading

"I think when you are a freshman and don't know anyone, you are worried about making a good impression. The real you never comes through. Also keeping up with the school work and activities."

PEGGY GOODMAN
Sophomore

"Peer pressure. It's tough finding out who your true friends are. Parents who still want to treat you as a kid, and the school work becomes more difficult."

Let's Play Ball!

Aquinas baseball tryouts were completed recently, and regulars who have braved the elements to get into shape, like Richard Pillitter, in his ninth year of baseball coaching at the school, are anxious for the season to begin. The 1982 version of the AQ team will be relying on two veterans, senior Ed Wedow, leading pitcher on the squad with a 1981 record of 4-2, and Tony Alomar, who played second base last year but will now cover the outfield. In his fourth year of varsity baseball, Tony was the first Aquinas freshman in 1979 to be a member of a sectional team at the school.

Looking for a good season are Dave Coletti, Ed Wedow and Steve Buttons.

Squad captain Steve Buttons and his team members will face their traditional rivals: Cardinal Mooney on Wednesday, May 19; McQuaid on Wednesday,

May 26. Regarding the Mooney contest Pillitter said, "Competition between Aquinas and Mooney is always keen because many of the boys on both teams come from the same neighborhoods in Greece."

Mooney voices will sing the Frank Loesser score of "Guys and Dolls" on two consecutive weekends.

Students Sing into Spring

With a cast of 60 under the direction of Ms. Bernetta Bourcy, Sister Marian Dimino and Brother William Clifford, Cardinal Mooney High School students will present "Guys and Dolls" at 8 p.m., Friday, April 30, and Saturday, May 1, and Friday and Saturday, May 7-8, in the Mooney auditorium, 800

Maiden Lane.

Also helping with the production are Mrs. Connie Eisle, costumes; Brother Etienne Cooper, set design; Mrs. Debbie Levy, artwork; Brother William Zaydak, special assistant stage crew; Father Tom Bertone, prop crew; Mrs. Pat Cossaboon, publicity; and Brother Michael Copek, photography. A 22-piece ensemble will play the musical score.

Tickets for the show are $3.50 general admission; $2, student pre-sale; $2 for senior citizens; no charge for the rehearsal at 5 p.m., on Thursday, April 29.

Winner's Circle

RapAround weekly will run a photo of a group of students taken somewhere in the diocese. One person will be circled and if that person brings the clipping to the Courier-Journal before noon of the Tuesday following our publication date, he or she will receive $5. This week's photo was taken at the Pastoral Office on Tuesday, March 30, of McQuaid students loading letters supporting tuition tax credits on a truck. The person circled should bring the clipping to Joan M. Smith, Courier-Journal, 114 South Union St., by noon, Tuesday, May 4, to receive $5.

Student Likes Music

In September, Aquinas Institute will inherit an enthusiastic musician. According to St. Agnes senior Sharon Claus, a schoolmate of hers, junior Jackie Kelly, who will be attending the Dewey Avenue school, would like to pursue a career in music.

Jackie began taking guitar lessons in the third grade and has had voice lessons for two years. She has entertained many times during her high school years, performing for the student body, playing in "Sound of Music" and singing at this year's junior ring ceremony. Besides her school performances she has been requested to sing at weddings.

She enjoys singing popular music and her favorite song is "Out Here on My Own" from "Fame."

Cleanup Duty Set

Aquinas has accepted a challenge from McQuaid to participate in a spring cleanup campaign along I-490 between I-390 and I-590 at 10 a.m., Sunday, May 2. John Tomanovich, president of the Student Council at Aquinas, said, "We are one of the parochial high schools in the city, so we feel we can demonstrate our concern by getting involved this year."
