Newfield Churches to Fete Departing Church Leaders

Newfield — Methodists and Catholics here will gather to honor Rev. Gary and Jeanne Judson of Newfield Methodist Church and Sister Betty Hughes, RSM, of Immaculate Conception, Ithaca.

celebrated at 6:15 p.m. Saturday, May 15, at the Newfield United Methodist Church, and a dish-to-pass supper will be staged an hour later.

The three Christian leaders are departing for new assignments shortly.

"Because of their love, self-giving, support and caring, our area has grown in our relationship with God and commitment to our respective faiths. They not only have been a blessing to Catholics and Methodists, but many other people outside our faith communities," Jane Doolittle, an organizer of the event, said last week.

A liturgy, prepared by the area youth group, will be

Wadhams Hall Gets New President

Ogdensburg — Father Leeward J. Poissant will become president of Wadhams Hall Seminary-College here effective July 1. Father Paul J.E. Burkard will become vice president.

The appointments, approved by Bishop Stanislaus J. Brzana of Ogdensburg, follow the resignation of Msgr. Peter R. Riani because of personal goals and a desire to return to parish work.

Ruth Corcoran Awarded RAVE

Ruth Corcoran, a volunteer with the local chapter of the American Red Cross for more than 40 years, became the first recipient of the RAVE (Rochester Area Volunteer Excellence) award at the annual meeting recently of the Volunteer Forum.

The award, sponsored by the Rochester agency of the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Co., was given to Corcoran in recognition of her "sustained, consistent and effective community service in the greater Rochester area."

A resident of Ontario, her Red Cross service has included work as an instructor at all levels of first aid and water safety. She also has volunteered for service with the YWCA, Girl Scouts and the Union Hill Fire Department and Ambulance Emergency Rescues.
