

UNITY IN MISSION: Those who sincerely accept the Good News and who have been gathered by it into the community of salvation, can and must communicate and share it with others.

UNITY IN MISSION: It is primarily by her conduct, by her living witness of fidelity to the Lord Jesus, that the Church will evangelize the world.

UNITY IN MISSION: This century thirsts for authenticity. Do you really believe what you are proclaiming? Do you live what you believe? Do you preach what you live?

UNITY IN MISSION: Young people trained in faith and prayers must become more and more the apostles of youth.

UNITY IN MISSION: Evangelizing means bringing the Good News into all the strata of humanity, and through its influence transforming humanity from within and making it new.

UNITY IN MISSION: Evangelization would not be complete if it did not take into account the rights and duties of every human being, of family life, life in society, peace, justice and development.

UNITY IN MISSION: The proclamation of the Good News reaches full development when it is listened to, accepted and assimilated, and when it evokes a genuine commitment in the one who has received it. Those whose lives have been transformed enter a community which is itself a sign of transformation, a sign of newness of life.

UNITY IN MISSION: With the human person as the starting point and always coming back to the relationships of people among themselves and with God, every effort must be made to ensure the full evangelization of culture, or, more correctly, of cultures.
