St. Paul of the Cross

Honeoye Falls — Word was received last week of two events staged recently by the Rosary Society of St. Paul of the Cross Church here.

The group served the fifth annual dinner for the Special Friends of the Community. The event, originated by Evie Borghi, past president of the society, honors those who for various reasons are confined to their homes.

The other event, a Mother-Daughter Breakfast followed the 8 a.m. Mass last Sunday.

During the Mass a traditional crowning of the Virgin Mary also took place.

Principals of the May 16 event were Mrs. Ellen Hunt, Mrs. Rosemary Hilbert, Miss Helen Stefano, Jack Collins, Frank Opedisano, Joseph Fraver, John Bloomfield, Frank Reynolds, Charles Hut and his two sons, David Hayiland and his son, Mrs. Marie Lord, Sandra O'Donaghue, Kay Slocum, Mrs. Diane Milne and Mrs. Sharon Bachmann.

Corpus Christi

Corpus Christi School will serve a spaghetti supper, 4-7:30 p.m., Thursday, May 20, in the church hall on the corner of Main and Prince streets.

Adult tickets are $3, and $2 for children younger than 12.

St. Boniface

Father Vincent J. Donovan, the Oswego pastor who is recognized as an expert on the Shroud of Turin, will present the case for the shroud's authenticity 7:30 p.m., May 25, at St. Boniface School hall.

The priest, who has studied the shroud for the last 35 years, and who participated in the International Congress of Scientists and Scholars in 1978, will also present a photographic display illustrating the negative-positive phenomenon of the image.

The event is co-sponsored by the Family Education Committee and the Little Flower Guild of the parish. The public is invited. Admission is free.

St. Michael

Penn Yan — Word was received last week of a special celebration staged by parishioners of St. Michael's Church commemorating the 14 years of pastorate held by Father Thomas McVeigh, who is retiring in June.

Last Sunday, Father McVeigh, Father Ronald W. Stacy, associate pastor, and Father William Cosgrove, former associate, celebrated a Mass of Thanksgiving for Father McVeigh's ministry at St. Michael's and at St. Andrew's in Dundee.

A buffet reception was held in St. Michael's Hall following the Mass. Parishioners presented the pastor with envelopes containing notes calling to mind special occasions or fond memories of his years in Penn Yan. The priest will move to Our Lady of Lourdes Parish in June.

St. Philip Neri

The Women's Club of St. Philip Neri Church will hold its annual garage sale, 9 a.m. to 7 p.m., June 4 and 5; and 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., June 6, in the church garage, 1772 Clifford Ave.

The public is invited to the event. Persons wishing to donate items for the sale are asked to contact Mary Montana, chairperson, 482-0080.

The same group will hold an installation banquet June 8 at Barry's Restaurant.

St. Jerome

Karen Monahan as the evil witch offers a poisoned apple to Saralynn Guisto as Snow White in the three-act operetta "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," 8 p.m., May 19 and 20 in the St. Jerome School auditorium in East Rochester. The classic fantasy will be enacted by children of the school.

St. Francis Xavier

It may be an off year, but it looks like a good party for the class of 1941 at St. Francis Xavier School. All the living classmates but two have been notified of a reunion May 21 at the Wishing Well.

Guests of honor will be Sister Gemma Marie, Sister Mary Phillips, Sister Ambrosine and Msgr. Albert Simmonetti.

The organizers of the party are Antoinette Mingione and Frank Fontana.
